Allowances.

17. An Inspector on privilege leave is entitled to an allowance equal to the salary which he would receive if he were on duty, even though another officer is appointed to act for him, the extra charge being borne by the Fund.

Long leave, furlough—general limitation.

18. The aggregate amount of furlough and of special leave with allowances admissible is six years.

Furlough earned.

19. The amount of furlough earned by an Inspector is one-fourth of his active service.

Furlough due.

20. The amount of furlough due is the amount which an Inspector has earned, diminished by the furlough or special leave with allowance which he has enjoyed under these rules.

Furlough admissible.

21. To an Inspector who has rendered three years' continuous service furlough for not more than two years may be granted as follows :—

(a) on medical certificate—unconditionally,

(b) without medical certificate, subject to the following provisos :—

(i) that the furlough be due to him,

(ii) that he has rendered eight years' active service,

(iii) that an interval of not less than eighteen months has elapsed between the last return from privilege leave, of over six weeks' duration and the furlough or privilege leave if any, with which the furlough is combined. In the case of privilege leave combined with other leave which does not interrupt continuous service, the period of eighteen months begins to run from the date subsequent to that of the end of the combined leave.

22. To an officer who has not rendered three years' continuous service furlough may be granted on medical certificate as follows :—

(a) if the furlough due exceeds a year to the extent due, not exceeding two years,

(b) if the furlough due does not exceed a year, for not more than one year.

Extension of furlough.

23. (a) Furlough granted under rule 21 may, on medical certificate, be extended to not more than three years.

(b) Furlough granted under rule 22 for less than two years under clause (a), or less than one year under clause (b), may, on medical certificate, be extended to the extent of the furlough due to the Inspector, not exceeding two years, or to one year, respectively.

Ordinary furlough.

24. Ordinary furlough can, under no circumstances, extend beyond two years at one time. It includes—

(i) the first two years of each separate period of furlough under rule 21, including any extension under rule 23 (a),

(ii) so much of furlough under rule 21, including any extension under rule 23 (b) as may be due.

Allowances.

25. An Inspector on ordinary furlough is entitled to a leave allowance equal to half his average salary, and in the case of furlough other than ordinary, to the same allowance.

Special leave.

26. Special leave on urgent private affairs may be granted at any time for not more than six months: provided that an officer who has had special leave must render six years' active service before he can again have such leave.

Allowances.

27. (a) For the first six months for which an officer is on special leave, whether the six months be included in the same leave or not, he is entitled to a leave allowance equal to half his average salary. Thereafter he is entitled to no leave allowance.

(b) An Inspector on special leave does not forfeit his past leave allowances by resigning the service without returning to India.

Extraordinary leave without allowance.

28. Extraordinary leave without allowance may, in case of necessity and when no other leave is by rule admissible, be granted for such time as may be necessary. No Inspector is entitled to extraordinary leave.

Subsidiary leave.

29. Subsidiary leave may be allowed to a Boiler Inspector in accordance with the rules in Chapter XIII, section V of the Civil Service Regulations.

Leave of Inspectors not possessing European qualifications.

30. Rules 18 to 27 and 29 apply only to European Inspectors possessing European qualifications. Inspectors who do not fulfil these conditions will be entitled to long leave under the Indian Services leave rules, as laid down in Chapter XIV of the Civil Service Regulations.

Leave of temporary or officiating Inspectors.

31. An Inspector who has a temporary or officiating appointment only may be allowed:—

(a) leave on medical certificate on half his average salary for not more than three months, if no substitute is required, or if his duties can be provided for without additional expense:

(b) leave without allowance under rule 28 for not more than three months.

Remuneration of acting Inspectors without a substantive appointment.

32. (a) Remuneration to be paid to any person appointed to act for an Inspector on leave will be half the minimum pay of the lowest grade, irrespective of the leave allowance drawn by the absentee.

(b) In special cases the acting allowance may, with the previous sanction of the Local Government, be increased to an amount not exceeding the minimum pay of the lowest grade.

Conditions of grant of pension.

33. A pension may ordinarily be granted:—

(i) as compensation on discharge in the case of reduction of establishment,

(ii) on retirement owing to duly certified bodily or mental infirmity,

(iii) on retirement after attaining the age of 55 years, or

(iv) after the completion of qualifying service for 30 years.

Qualifying service commences when an officer actually joins the service in the Fund Establishment, and it includes time spent on duty and privilege leave, as also the time passed on leave with allowances, as laid down in article 408 of the Civil Service Regulations.

31. The amount of a pension is regulated as follows:—

(a) After a service of less than ten years, a gratuity not exceeding (except in special cases, and under the orders of Government) one month's emoluments for each completed year of service. If the emoluments of the Inspector have been reduced during the last three years of his service, otherwise than as a penalty, average emoluments may, at the discretion of the Local Government, be substituted for emoluments.

(b) After a service of not less than ten years a pension not exceeding the amount arrived at on the following scale:—

Years of completed service.	Scale of pension.	Maximum limit of pension.
		Rs.	Rs.
10	$\frac{10}{60}$ths of the average emoluments	2,000 a year=	$166\frac{2}{3}$ a month.

NOTE.—(1) For the precise meaning of average emoluments see articles 486 and 487 of the Civil Service Regulations.

(2) The reduction refered to in article 478 (a) of the Civil Service Regulations should not be applied to the Inspectors, as they are officers with technical training, which necessitates many years of practical and technical work before they become qualified for the work of the Commission, consequently most of them are over 30 years of age before joining the service.

Extraordinary pension

35. A pension, gratuity or compassionate allowance in case of injury or death may be granted—

(i) to an Inspector so injured in the execution of his public duty as to be incapacitated from earning a livelihood:

(ii) to the relatives of an Inspector killed in the execution of his duties, or who may die in such exceptional circumstances as would, in the opinion of the Government of India, justify the payment of a pension, gratuity or compassionate allowance to his relatives had he been in Government service.

This rule applies to any person employed in the service, whether permanently or temporarily.

36. A pension, gratuity or compassionate allowance under rule 35 may be granted only when injury or death is met in the performance of a duty which is attended with extraordinary bodily risk. No claim on account of loss of life or bodily injury resulting from ordinary accident is recognised.

37. The pension, gratuity or compassionate allowance under rule 35 is granted at the discretion of Government.

38. The amount of pension or gratuity under rule 35 is to be regulated by the conditions laid down in articles 737, 738, 739 and 740 of the Civil Service Regulations.

No. 1005C.—The following rules are published for general information, in supersession of rules IV, XI (7), and XII of the rules for the submission, receipt and transmission of memorials and other papers of the same class to His Majesty the King-Emperor of India, or to the Right Hon'ble the Secretary of State for India, as published with the Home Department Notification No. 536, dated the 30th June 1916.

RULE IV.

Every memorial to His Majesty or to the Secretary of State for India presented through the Government of Madras, Bombay or Bengal should be forwarded direct by the local Government with a full statement of facts and an expression of opinion, except in the case of a memorial which—

(a) relates to :—

(i) any rule or standing order of the Government of India ; or

(ii) any Legislative Proceedings of the Governor-General in Council or an Act to which the Governor-General has assented ; or

(iii) a case which has been previously under the consideration of the Government of India, whether on appeal or otherwise ; or

(b) if granted, would cause expenditure for which the Imperial and not the local Government would be primarily responsible ; or

(c) contains a prayer for the exercise of the Royal prerogative of pardon.

Every such memorial should be forwarded with a covering letter containing a full statement of facts and an expression of opinion to the Government of India in the proper department for transmission to the Secretary of State for India.

Note.—If the memorial contains an application for the suspension or remission of a sentence under Chapter XXIX of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (Act V of 1898), of which the local Government is not competent to dispose on its own responsibility under the orders contained in rule VI in paragraph 1 of the Home Department letter No. 1126-37, dated the 10th September 1915, it should be transmitted to the Government of India and not to the Secretary of State direct.

RULE XI (7).

Note.—If the memorial is practically an application for the suspension or remission of a sentence under Chapter XXIX of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (Act V of 1898), or contains such an application, it must be transmitted unless it falls under rule XII, or unless the case is one of which the Local Government or the Government of India are competent to dispose on their own responsibility under the orders contained in the Home Department letter No. 1126-37, dated the 10th September 1915.

RULE XII.

XII. The Government of Madras, Bombay or Bengal may withhold the transmission of a memorial which under rule IV they are authorised to forward direct, if the memorialist has not previously memorialised the local Government concerned on the same subject.

No. 2581-S.—The following Order in Council is published for general information, in continuation of the Notification in this Department No. 1676, dated the 24th April 1915:—

AT THE COURT AT BUCKINGHAM PALACE.

The 10th day of January 1917.

PRESENT:

THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS on the 11th day of March, 1915, an Order was issued by His Majesty in Council directing that all ships which sailed from their ports of departure after the 1st day of March, 1915, might be required to discharge in a British or Allied port goods which were of enemy origin or of enemy destination or which were enemy property:

And whereas such Order in Council was consequent upon certain Orders issued by the German Government purporting to declare, in violation of the usages of war, the waters surrounding the United Kingdom a military area, in which all British and Allied merchant vessels would be destroyed, irrespective of the lives of passengers and crew, and in which neutral shipping would be exposed to similar danger, in view of the uncertainties of naval warfare:

And whereas the sinking of British, Allied, and neutral merchant ships, irrespective of the lives of passengers and crews, and in violation of the usages of war, has not been confined to the waters surrounding the United Kingdom, but has taken place in a large portion of the area of naval operations:

And whereas such illegal acts have been committed not only by German warships but by warships flying the flag of each of the enemy countries:

And whereas on account of the extension of the scope of the illegal operations carried out under the said German Orders, and in retaliation therefor, vessels have been required under the provisions of the Order in Council aforementioned to discharge in a British or Allied port goods which were of enemy origin or of enemy destination or which were enemy property, irrespective of the enemy country from or to which such goods were going or of the enemy country in which was domiciled the person whose property they were:

And whereas doubts have arisen as to whether the term "enemy" in articles 3 and 4 of the said Order in Council includes enemy countries other than Germany.

NOW, THEREFORE, His Majesty is pleased by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. In articles 3 and 4 of the said Order in Council of the 11th March, 1915, aforementioned, the terms "enemy destination" and "enemy origin" shall be deemed to apply and shall apply to goods destined for or originating in any enemy country and the term "enemy property" shall be deemed to apply and shall apply to goods belonging to any person domiciled in any enemy country.

2. Effect shall be given to this Order in the application of the said Order in Council of the 11th March, 1915, to goods which previous to the date of this Order have been discharged at a British or Allied port, being goods of destination or origin or property which was enemy though not German, and all such goods shall be detained and dealt with in all respects as is provided in the said Order in Council of the 11th March, 1915.

The following Act of the Indian Legislative Council received the assent of the Governor General on the 28th February, 1917, and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. IV OF 1917.

An Act to authorise the suspension of certain sentences passed by Courts-martial under the Indian Army Act, 1911, and for other purposes.

WHEREAS it is expedient to authorise the suspension of sentences of imprisonment or transportation passed during the present war on persons subject to the Indian Army Act, 1911, and to make provision for other matters connected therewith ; It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Short title, construction and duration.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Indian Army (Suspension of Sentences) Act, 1917, and shall be construed as one with the principal Act.

(2) It shall remain in force during the continuance of the present war, and for a period of six months thereafter.

Definitions.

2. In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

(1) "committed" includes committal to prison and confinement in military custody, and "imprisonment" includes such confinement ;

(2) "competent military authority" means a superior military authority, or any general or other officer not below the rank of field officer duly authorised by a superior military authority ;

(3) "principal Act" means the Indian Army Act, 1911 ;

(4) "sentence" means a sentence of transportation or imprisonment, whether originally passed on a person subject to the principal Act, or passed by way of reduction or commutation ; and "senteneed" has the corresponding meaning ;

(5) "superior military authority" means any of the following, namely :—the Commander-in-Chief in India or the Officer Commanding the Army, Army Corps, Division or independent Brigade in which the offender, at the time of his conviction, was serving, and includes the Officer Commanding-in-Chief of any force employed on active service or any General Officer Commanding an army comprised in that force.

Suspension of sentences.

3. (1) Where a person subject to the principal Act is sentenced, the confirming officer when confirming the sentence, or, in the case of a sentence which does not require confirmation, the officer holding the trial or the President of the Court-martial when passing sentence may, notwithstanding anything in the principal Act, direct that such person be not committed or dismissed from the service (if liable to such dismissal) until the orders of a superior military authority have been obtained.

(2) A superior military authority may, in the case of any such offender so sentenced,—

(a) direct that such offender shall not be committed until his orders have been obtained ;

(b) suspend the sentence whether or not the offender has already been committed.

(4) Where a sentence is suspended under this Act after the offender has been committed, he shall be discharged and the currency of the sentence suspended until he is again committed under the same sentence.

(5) An offender, whose sentence has been suspended under this Act, whether or not the sentence is subsequently remitted, may be required to serve in a corps or department other than that in which he was serving when sentenced.

(6) Where a sentence has been suspended under this Act, the case may at any time, and shall at intervals of not more than three months, be reconsidered by a competent military authority, and if on any such re-consideration it appears to the competent military authority that the conduct of the offender since his conviction has been such as to justify a remission of the sentence, he shall remit it.

(7) A superior military authority may, at any time whilst a sentence is suspended under this Act, order that the offender be committed, and thereupon the sentence shall cease to be suspended, and the prisoner, if liable to be dismissed from the service under section 15 of the principal Act, shall be forthwith dismissed from the service.

(8) Where an offender whilst a sentence on him is so suspended is sentenced for any other offence, then, if that sentence is also suspended under this Act, the authority ordering the suspension may direct that the two sentences shall run either concurrently or consecutively, provided that the aggregate term of imprisonment to be served under two or more sentences shall not exceed fourteen consecutive years; and where the sentence for such other offence is a sentence of transportation, then, whether or not that sentence is suspended, any previous sentence of imprisonment which has been suspended shall be avoided, in so far as the period of such imprisonment does not exceed that of the transportation.

(9) The powers conferred by this Act shall be in addition to, and not in derogation of, any powers as to the mitigation, remission or commutation of sentences conferred by the principal Act, and a superior military authority shall, as regards persons subject to that Act, be an authority having power to mitigate, remit or commute sentences under section 99 of that Act.

The 20th March 1917.

No. 22Marine.—In exercise of the power conferred by section 29 of the Inland Steam-vessels Act, 1917 (I of 1917), read with sections 20 and 31 of that Act, and with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, the Governor in Council is pleased to make the following rules for regulating the grant of Certificates of Competency to Masters and Serangs of Inland Steam-vessels, in supersession of the previous rules on the subject published under the Government of Bengal, Marine Department, Notification No. 63Mne., dated the 16th July 1907, as amended by Notification No. 111Mne., dated the 25th August 1914, and under the late Government of Eastern Bengal and Assam Notification No. 137Mne., dated the 27th June 1908.

RULES.

Certificates granted to persons who pass examinations.

1. Certificates of Competency will be granted to those persons who pass the requisite examinations and otherwise comply with the requisite conditions. For this purpose arrangement will be made for holding examinations periodically at the Ports of Calcutta and Chittagong.

Examinations continued till all the candidates are examined.

2. The examinations will be held by the Port Officer, who is hereby appointed under section 20 of the Act, to hold such examinations, and one or more other examiners as the Government may from time to time appoint. They will commence early in the forenoon, and will be continued from day to day until all the candidates whose names appear upon the Port Officer's list on the day of examination are examined.

3. Candidates for examination must make their application upon the appropriate form (Exn. 2b), which must be filled up at the Port Office. The form properly filled in, together with the candidates' testimonials and discharges must be lodged with the Port Officer not later than the day before the day of examination.

Testimonials of character, conduct, and ability required.

4. Testimonials of character and of sobriety, experience, ability and good conduct on boardship for at least the last twelve months' service preceding the date of application to be examined will be required from all applicants. Applicants who have not served on boardship within the last twelve months will be required to produce, in addition to the preceding testimonials, certificates of a like nature from their employers, or, if unemployed, from some respectable house-holder. No candidate will be allowed to be examined unless he has served on boardship at sea or on inland waters two years within the last six years, and six months within the last three years preceding the date of his application to be examined.

Testimonials of Foreigners.

5. The testimonials of service of Foreigners and of British seamen serving in foreign vessels, which cannot be verified by the Port Officer, must be confirmed either by the Consul of the Country to which the ship in which the candidate served belonged, or by some other recognized official authority of that country; or by the testimony of some credible person on the spot having personal knowledge of the facts required to be established. The production, however, of such proofs will not of necessity be deemed sufficient. Each case must be decided on its own merits; and if the sufficiency of the proofs given appears to be at all doubtful, the point must be referred to the Government.

6. Testimonials of service of candidates must ordinarily be based on their employers' office-records.

Services claimed which cannot be verified from the employer's office-records must be authenticated by affidavits of men under whom such services have been performed as well as by an affidavit of the candidate himself.

Testimonials of service from European commanders will be accepted.

Certificates as to age.

7. Should any doubt exist as to the age of a candidate, he will be required to produce a certificate of birth or baptism.

Foreigners to know English.

8. Foreigners must prove to the satisfaction of the examiners that they can speak and write the English language sufficiently well to perform the duties required of them on board a British vessel.

In the case of natives of India who may not be able to speak English, their certificates shall be endorsed to the effect that they are valid only for vessels manned and officered entirely by Asiatics.

Sight and Colour Tests.

9. Any persons, including the holders of Certificates of Competency, or persons about to apply for Certificates of Competency, if desirous of being examined in colours only, must make application to the Port Officer in Form Exn. 2a, and pay a fee of one rupee.

10. No candidate will be examined in colours until he has passed the sight tests.

This rule must be observed whether the candidate has or has not on any previous occasion passed the sight tests.

11. Candidates who fail to pass the sight test can be re-examined at intervals of three months.

12. If a candidate fails in colours, it will be open to him to be examined again on three occasions only at intervals of three months. A fresh fee must be paid on each occasion.

13. A candidate who holds a Certificate of Competency, and, who, on presenting himself for examination for a certificate of a higher grade is unable to pass the colour test will notwithstanding be permitted to proceed with the examination for the certificate of the higher grade.

14. Should he pass this examination, the following statement will be written on the face of the higher grade certificate which may be granted to him, viz.—"This officer has failed to pass the examination in colours."

15. Should he ultimately fail to pass the examination, a like statement, relating to his being colour-blind, will be made by the Port Officer on his existing certificate before it is returned to him.

16. Holders of certificates which bear the statement of their having failed to pass in colours, and who may desire to have the statement removed from their certificates, must obtain the special permission of the Local Government.

II. The draft will be taken into consideration on or after the 21st April 1916, and any suggestions or objections with regard thereto, which are received by the undersigned before that date, will be duly considered.

III. This cancels the draft rules published for criticism under Notification No. 150Mne., dated the 8th December 1914

F. A. A. COWLEY,
Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

NOTIFICATION.

No. Marine.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 5 of the Indian Explosives Act, 1884, and with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, the Governor in Council of the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal is pleased to make the following revised rules to regulate the transport and importation of explosives, other than those mentioned in section 14 of the Act, in the Port of Calcutta, in supersession of the rules previously made.

These rules are supplementary to the revised rules relating to the transport and importation of explosives made by the Governor-General in Council and published under Government of India, Commerce and Industry Department, Notification No. 4013—33, dated the 6th June 1914.

Rules to regulate the transport and importation of explosives in the Port of Calcutta.

[The additions and alterations proposed to be made are shown in italics.]

N.B.—"Explosive," as defined in section 4, Act IV of 1884, and as used in these rules.—

(a) means gunpowder, nitro-glycerine, dynamite, gun-cotton, blasting powders, fulminate of mercury or of other metals, coloured fires, and every other substance, whether similar to those above mentioned or not, used or manufactured with a view to produce a practical effect by explosion or a pyrotechnic effect; and

(b) includes fog-signals, fireworks, fuzes, rockets, percussion caps, detonators, cartridges, ammunition of all descriptions and every adaptation or preparation of an explosive as above defined. It also includes any dangerous substance which may have been ordered by the Governor-General in Council, under section 17 of the Indian Explosives Act, 1884, to be deemed an explosive.

1. Except as is hereinafter provided for, no vessel shall have on board, within the limits of the port, any explosives, as defined in section 4, Act IV of 1884, except two storm or danger signals, six smaller lights of the same description, 24 blue lights, 24 rockets, or 24 socket signals with friction tubes, 24 detonating signals with friction tubes, or in lieu thereof 24 one-pound charges of gunpowder for use in a gun together with a small box of friction tubes and a flask of priming powder, 24 private signals of any Company, and 12 red lights for each boat and life raft carried under the statutory rules for life-saving appliances (made by the Board of Trade under section 427 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894), and a reasonable quantity of safety cartridges for the equipment of the vessel or for the personal use of the officers on board the ship, provided that the quantities held by them are declared in the prescribed Customs Forms A and B respectively, or in the case of foreign vessel, in the Stores List of such vessel. Detonators and their friction tubes to be stored separately. All explosives which vessels are by this rule permitted to keep on board in port shall be stored in all cases in separate, detached and completely enclosed magazines for each description of signals. The magazines should be kept in a house on deck and stowed or ranged as far apart as possible, so that in the event of fire they can be removed or thrown overboard.

2. All inward-bound vessels carrying explosives, in excess of the quantity prescribed by rule 1, are prohibited from proceeding above Budge-Budge, and the Master of any vessel lying within the port, which shall have on board any explosives in contravention of these rules, shall be liable to a fine which may extend to the sum mentioned in clause (a) or clause (b), as the case may be, of the proviso to section 5 of the Indian Explosives Act, 1884.

3. Explosives of classes 1, 6 and 7, as laid down in the rules issued under Government of India, Commerce and Industry Department, Notification No. 4013—33, dated the 6th June 1914, that is to say, gunpowder, ammunition and fireworks in excess of the quantity prescribed in rules 1 and 2, shall be landed and deposited in the magazine at Moyapore.

4. For the convenience of vessels having ship's gunpowder, ammunition and fireworks on board, a properly constructed powder-boat will be always in attendance off the magazine for landing and shipping these explosives. No charge will be made for the use of the boat for landing ship's explosives, but the responsibility of the keeper in respect of the ship's explosives shall not commence until they are landed on the bank, and shall cease as soon as they are shipped on board the boat. Every precaution will be taken to insure the safety of the explosives while in the boat, but the landing and shipping shall be at the risk of the vessel.

5. Vessels bringing consignments of trade explosives shall be allowed the use of the magazine boat; but should passing vessels require the use of the boat to put out or take in ship's explosives, such vessels shall be accommodated before the boat can be used to discharge explosives brought as cargo. The landing of trade explosives, whether the station boats or private boats are employed, shall be at the risk and expense of the consignees of the explosives, and no liability shall be accepted for damage sustained while in course of landing or until the consignments are stored in the magazine.

6. Explosives specified in the first division, class 6 of the rules published under Government of India, Commerce and Industry Department, Notification No. 4013—33, dated the 6th June 1914, viz., safety cartridges, safety fuzes for blasting, railway fog-signals, and percussion caps brought as part of a general cargo and which have been placed on board the vessels while lying in dock at ports of shipment, may be brought into port and landed at the docks or jetties in accordance with the regulations prescribed in that behalf in the Port Commissioners' bye-laws.

The term "safety fuze" means a fuze for blasting which burns and does not explode, and which does not contain its own means of ignition, and which is of such strength and construction, and contains an explosive in such quantity, that the burning of such fuze will not communicate laterally with other like fuzes.

The expression "safety cartridges" means cartridges for small-arms of which the case can be extracted from the small-arm after firing, and which are so closed as to prevent any explosion in one cartridge being communicated to other cartridges. The term also includes rifle-calibre machine-gun cartridges if they are of the above description, whether they are for use with machine-guns having chambers identical with those of rifles or with machine-guns which have special chambers.

The maximum diameter at which a small-arm or machine-gun cartridge can be accepted as "safety" is one inch.

7. In order to avoid unnecessary detention, Masters of vessels requiring the use of the powder-boat shall hoist a flag at the fore-topmast head on coming in sight of the magazine, as a signal to the keeper to have the boat and coolies in attendance.

8. Masters of vessels shall mark the names of their respective vessels on the barrels and packages of ship's explosives previously to their being landed; if not marked, they shall not be received by the magazine boat.

9. Explosives shall not be landed within the port or at Moyapore or Diamond Harbour at any time when artificial lights are required to be used, and no explosives shall be landed, received into, or delivered from the magazine when artificial lights are required to be used.

10. The magazine-keeper shall give to the Master of any vessel landing explosives at the magazine a receipt for the number of packages, and the magazine-keeper shall be accountable to such Master for the re-delivery of such packages.

11. Before entering the limits of the port, the Master of every vessel having explosives on board shall make and sign a declaration in writing that to his knowledge and belief there is not on board any explosive exceeding the quantity prescribed in these rules.

12. A clerk shall be always in attendance in the powder-boat, and shall receive from the Master the declaration specified in the foregoing rule.

13. If any vessel shall be prevented, by stress of weather or by being in distress, from landing or depositing such explosives in excess of the quantity allowed as aforesaid, such vessel may be permitted to come up to the lower limits of the port, but shall not proceed above Matteabrooj Ghât, and the Master of such vessel shall forthwith give notice to the Harbour Master of his having such explosives on board, and shall obey the Harbour Master's directions relating to the same.

14. Masters of vessels, outward bound, who may require ship's explosives for their outward voyage, shall not take such explosives on board in any part of the river above Budge-Budge, with the exception of a quantity not exceeding that named and sanctioned in rule 1.

15. Masters of vessels, who have deposited ship's explosives at the magazine shall inform the Harbour Master of the date on which the vessel will pass the magazine outward bound, and on receipt of this information, orders shall be forwarded to the keeper to place the explosives in the boat, and send it off in such time as to avoid any detention of the outward-bound vessel. Before taking the explosives on board, the receipt granted by the magazine-keeper shall be given up.

16. Boats as approved for this purpose by the Boat Surveyor to the Port Commissioners shall be permitted to take on board at the Moyapore Magazine and bring as far as Prinsep's Ghât, under cover of passes to be granted by the Commissioner of Police and the Port Commissioners, 50 lbs. of trade gunpowder, the property of dealers and consignees. For each boat the dealers shall supply an armed guard (pensioned sepoy) whom the Commissioner of Police, Calcutta, will select.

17. Delivery of trade powder into boats at the Moyapore Magazine for conveyance to Calcutta shall only be granted upon orders issued by the Port Commissioners.

18. No boat containing powder, under the provisions of rules 16 and 17, shall be allowed to proceed above Prinsep's Ghât. All such powder shall be landed at Prinsep's Ghât, and no powder shall be landed at any other ghât, except with the special permission of the Port Commissioners.

19. No smoking, and no fire or light of any description, except the red lamps between sunset and sunrise, shall be permitted on board of any boat having explosives on board.

20. Masters of vessels having on board compressed gunpowder for blasting purposes, and dynamite, gelignite and detonators, intended for despatch upcountry, shall make their own arrangements for the discharge of the same. These explosives may be landed at Moyapore and transported under police guard from Moyapore to the Bengal-Nagpur Railway siding at Bo creah and there loaded into Bengal-Nagpur Railway wagons for despatch to destination, provided the transport is covered by a pass to be granted by the District Magistrate of the 24-Parganas and the loading is done during day-light and no storage is allowed on shore or on boats.

21. Masters of vessels having on board explosives belonging to the following classes, as laid down in the rules prescribed in the Notification of the Government of India, Commerce and Industry Department, No. 1013—33, dated the 6th June 1914, shall make their own arrangements for the discharge of the explosives :—

Class 2.—Nitrate mixture. | Class 3.—Nitro compound.

Explosives of the classes specified above shall not be landed at the Moyapore Magazine. They shall only be allowed to enter and pass through the port under the supervision of the Port Police and subject to such restrictions as may, from time to time, be ordered by the Commissioner of Police and the Port Commissioners, in addition to the restrictions laid down in the rules promulgated by the Government of India, Commerce and Industry Department, Notification No. 4013—33, dated the 6th June 1914. But they may be landed at Diamond Harbour and conveyed thence by rail to Durgapur: provided they are taken direct from the vessel to wagons; or if there be no wagons ready to receive them, arrangements are made for their safe custody after leaving the vessel. The landing and transport of dynamite and gelignite, class 3 explosives, intended for despatch upcountry, are governed by rule 20.

22. Boats containing explosives of the classes specified in the two foregoing rules may anchor at Diamond Harbour if it is intended to land the explosives at that place, but shall, in no case, anchor within port limits, or be made fast at any part of the river bank or alongside any vessel, stage, jetty, or pier within the limits of the port. Such boats, if allowed to enter port, shall proceed direct through the port to the place licensed by the Local Government for the landing and storage of the explosives.

STARRED QUESTIONS.

By the Hon'ble RAI MAHENDRA CHANDRA MITRA BAHADUR :—

Housing of colliery labourers.

* 1. (a) Are the Government aware that the Bengal Mining Settlements Act of 1912 does not provide any remedy for the defects of the present system regarding the housing of casual labourers in the coal-fields of Bengal?

(b) Are the Government considering the desirability of appointing a committee to inquire into the question of the housing of casual labourers in the coal-fields of Bengal?

Answer by the Hon'ble MR. DONALD :—

" (a) Government are aware that the Bengal Mining Settlements Act of 1912 does not confer powers to deal with the housing of labourers who come from homes at a distance to work for short periods at the mines. The Act gives power only to provide for the housing of residents within a mining settlement.

(b) Government do not consider it necessary to appoint a committee. But the matter will be brought to the notice of the Managers of mines with a view to improving the arrangements for the housing of casual labourers wherever improvement appears to be necessary."

Expenditure on female education.

* 4. (a) Will the Government be pleased to lay on the table a statement showing the amount actually spent up to December, 1916, for female education in Bengal under various items, out of the sums provided for this purpose in the Budget Estimates for 1916-17?

(b) Will the Government be pleased to state the amount of the balance still available for female education for the year ending 31st March, 1917?

Answer by the Hon'ble MR. HORNELL :—

"(a) The Government of Bengal regret that they are unable to supply the information asked for, as no separate account is kept of the expenditure in question. (b) Is it a fact that Mr. Zahid Suhrawardy was at first a Vakil of the Calcutta High Court and then a Barrister-at-Law of some years' standing before he was appointed as a Judge of the Calcutta Small Cause Court upon the retirement of Nawab Abdur Rahman?

(c) Will the Government be pleased to state the reason for not appointing Mr. Zahid Suhrawardy as the Second Judge, in the place of the retired Nawab?

(d) Will the Government also be pleased to state the reasons for placing Mr. Suhrawardy below the two European Judges and above the three Indian Judges, including the Registrar of the Court?

Answer by the Hon'ble MR. KERR :—

" (a) & (b) Yes.

(c) & (d) Government desired to take advantage of the retirement of Nawab Abdur Rahman to give promotion to the existing Judges of the Court as far as possible. At the same time they felt that it was most desirable to appoint a Muhammadan lawyer of standing to the Court, and it was not possible to find a suitable Muhammadan lawyer willing to enter the Court at the bottom. Mr. Suhrawardy was the most capable and experienced Muhammadan lawyer available and was appointed to the lowest place that he could be prevailed upon to accept. This arrangement enabled Government to promote the present Second and Third Judges who entered the Court in 1891 and 1902, respectively. The Fifth and Sixth Judges entered the Court in 1913 and 1908, respectively, while the Registrar was appointed to his post in 1915."

* 9. (a) With reference to the official communiqué recently issued, increasing the price of oil by 10 annas per unit of two tins of oil, will the Government be pleased to state whether they are aware that in many places there is no provision for storing bulk oil and that the increase made in the price of tin oil is pressing heavily upon the consumers?

(b) Are the Government aware that one result of the communiqué has been to stifle competition between bulk oil and tin oil in many places?

(c) Are the Government taking any steps to remedy this hardship?

Questions and Answers.

Answer by the Hon'ble MR. DONALD :—

" Government are aware that in many places there is no provision for storing oil in bulk. But the difficulty of securing tin plates for the manufacture of tins is so great that it is not possible to sell oil in tins to the same extent as formerly. The price of tins has been increased in order to lessen the demand for tins and induce customers to purchase oil in bulk, and as the price of oil in bulk remains unchanged, it is to the benefit of the consumer to do so. It is desirable to restrict the use of tins as far as possible, and at the same time equally desirable that oil tins should be reserved for this purpose and should not be utilised for other purposes. Both these considerations are met by the increase in the price of tins. The purchaser of oil in tins is not a loser, as the value of the tin itself is certainly not less than the difference between the value of two gallons of oil in tin and in bulk. Government are aware that in some cases dealers are taking advantage of the increase in the price of tins to demand an enhanced price for oil retailed by them. A further consideration affecting the price is the fact that the supply of inferior oil has decreased owing to the cessation of imports of foreign oil and that as a consequence the demand for superior oil, the supply of which is unchanged, has now largely increased. Steps are being taken to make it more generally known that the price of bulk oil has not been changed, while at the same time measures are in contemplation for extending the facilities for the sale of bulk oil."

(f) Referring to the figures given in reply to my unstarred question No. XLVII on the 13th December, 1916, will the Government be pleased to explain the reason why the augmentation grant has been showing a decrease since 1913-14 as compared with the amounts of the previous years?

Questions and Answers.

Answer by the Hon'ble MR. DONALD :—

" (a) & (b) When the augmentation grant was first made, the Government of India stated that they proposed at the outset to leave the distribution of the grant to the discretion of the Local Government, but that later on it would probably prove desirable to make the distribution rateably. They directed that the District Boards should be instructed that, in utilising the sums placed at their disposal, expenditure on roads and bridges should have preference in all cases in which additional outlay on such works could be incurred with advantage. No other terms and conditions were laid down by the Government of India and there was no agreement between that Government and the Local Government.

(c) The Hon'ble Member is referred to the answer given to clause (b) of the answer to starred question No. 10 asked by him on the 23rd January, 1917.

(d) & (e) The amount of the augmentation grant is fixed at 25 per cent. of the net receipts from the road cess less the amount by which the net Public Works Cess exceeds Rs. 29,42,000. This latter sum is made up of the Imperial assignment to Provincial Revenues as compensation for the loss of the Public Works Cess and the amount of the equilibrium grant that was resumed when the Public Works Cess was made over to District Boards.

The calculations for the year 1913-14, and subsequent years were as follows :—

	Rs.
1913-14—
Net Road Cess receipts	29,38,832
25 per cent. on above	7,34,708

The augmentation grant was, therefore, Rs. 7,34,708, but the amount was originally calculated at Rs. 5,84,496, and this amount only was paid in 1913-14. The balance was subsequently paid to District Boards, viz., Rs. 15,000 in 1914-15, and Rs. 1,35,212 in 1915-16, the latter sum being made over to the District Boards mentioned in paragraph 13 of the Resolution on the working of District Boards for 1915-16.

Questions and Answers.

Answer by the Hon'ble MR. DONALD :—concluded.

* 14. (a) What are the terms of agreement between the Imperial and the Provincial Governments which permit the latter to depart from the general principles of allotment of the augmentation grant to individual District Boards, as stated in answer to starred question No. 10 asked by me on the 23rd January last?

(b) On how many and what occasions were such departures made by the Government of Bengal since 1905, and in what particular manner were these departures made?

(c) Is there any instance on record in which a mistake in the calculation of the amount of augmentation grant, as referred to in answer to starred question No. 10 of the 23rd January, 1917, was considered a sufficiently strong case to justify a variation from the practice of making rateable distribution; and do the rules or the understanding in this behalf authorise Government to make such variations on any such grounds?

Answer by the Hon'ble MR. DONALD :—

" (a) As stated in the reply to question 13 (a) and (b), there was no agreement between the Local Government and the Government of India.

(b) From 1905-06 to 1908-09, Government distributed the grant rateably to divisions, leaving the Commissioners to distribute it among the different District Boards in their divisions according to local requirements. A slight deviation from the principle of rateable distribution occurred in 1907-08 and 1908-09. In the former year the allotment to the Burdwan and Presidency Divisions was reduced by Rs. 2,262 and Rs. 541, respectively, the allotment to the Orissa Division being increased accordingly; and in the latter year the allotments made to the Burdwan and Presidency Divisions were the same as in 1907-08. From 1909-10 to 1914-15 the grant was distributed rateably by Government direct to different District Boards. In 1915-16 special grants were made for special reasons to particular District Boards, as explained in the answer to clause (c).

(c) The special grants amounting to Rs. 1,35,212, which were made in 1915-16, were justified by the exceptional circumstances of particular districts and not by the mistake in calculation. As stated in the reply given to starred question No. 10 on the 23rd January, 1917, Government have the right to depart from the principle of rateable distribution in exceptional cases to meet exceptional circumstances."

(b) Is it a fact that, in other provinces, such acting allowances are not confined to the same college?

(c) Is it a fact that in such colleges as the Rajshahi College, which is staffed by Provincial Educational Service officers only, very senior officers do not receive any such acting allowance?

(d) Are the Government aware of the feeling that exists that this practice tends to work hardly on several officers who are efficient and have long and meritorious service to their credit?

Answer by the Hon'ble MR. HORNELL :—

" (a) The answer is in the negative. When a vacancy occurs in an Indian Educational Service post in a college, the acting allowance is drawn by the officer appointed to act in that post, who may belong to the college or may be transferred from another college.

(b) The Government of Bengal have no information.

(c) As the Rajshahi College has no post in the Indian Educational Service attached to it, the allowance cannot be drawn by an officer while serving in the college; but there is nothing to prevent an officer in the college being transferred to act in an Indian Educational Service vacancy elsewhere and drawing the allowance in question.

(d) The answer is in the negative."

Special allowances to Provincial Educational Service officers.

* 22. (a) Is it a fact that the Government contemplated granting special allowances to officers of the Provincial Educational Service when they are promoted to the posts of Principal and Inspector?

(b) Is it a fact that the Principal of the Rajshahi College is the only officer in the Provincial Educational Service who is serving as a Principal of a large first grade Government college?

(c) Is it a fact that he has served as such for nearly twenty years?

(d) If the answer to clause (c) is in the affirmative, will the Government be pleased to state the reason why no such allowance has been given to that officer?

(e) If the answer to clause (a) is in the affirmative, will the Government be pleased to state whether they are taking steps to grant the said allowance to all officers of the Provincial Educational Service who have been promoted to the post of Principal or Inspector for efficient service?

Questions and Answers.

Answer by the Hon'ble MR. HORNELL :—

" (a) No allowances such as those referred to in the question have been sanctioned by Government.

(b) & (c) The answer is in the affirmative.

(d) & (e) No such allowances having been sanctioned, these questions do not arise."

* 23. (a) Are the Government aware that jute-steeping is a source of water pollution in Bengal?

(b) Will the Government be pleased to state what steps, if any, they are taking to remedy the evil?

Answer by the Hon'ble MR. DONALD :—

" (a) Government are advised that the steeping of jute in water, more especially when the quantity of jute is large and the volume of water is small, can cause such pollution as to render the water unfit for human consumption.

(b) A copy of a note by the Sanitary Commissioner, pointing out the danger of steeping jute in the sources of drinking water supply or in water actually used for drinking, has been circulated to District Boards and Municipalities for such action as they may consider necessary. Under the model municipal by-laws the steeping of jute in any tank or ditch in municipal limits is a penal offence, and the model by-laws for District Boards prohibit the steeping of jute in any drain, borrow-pit or excavation at the side of any road."

*24. (a) What is the present state of Tolly's Nala?

(b) Is it a fact that it is gradually being silted up to such an extent that navigation is becoming practically impossible?

(c) What steps are the Government taking in the matter?

Answer by the Hon'ble MR. COWLEY :—

" (a) The condition of Tolly's Nala has not altered greatly during the past five years.

(b) During the period from the 1st December to the 15th June in each year the water in Tolly's Nala is insufficient to allow of the passage of heavily laden boats.

(c) Government have been advised that there are two possible remedies to restore navigation in Tolly's Nala—

(i) by canalising the nala ;

(ii) by constructing a lock and sluice at Samukpotta so as to keep out the Bidyadhari tide and by constructing a channel for the Hooghly tide to spill into the southern lake at Samukpotta.

The former remedy formed a part of the original Grand Trunk Canal project, but has for the present been abandoned until it has been ascertained from actual tide observations whether the second remedy is likely to prove effectual.

Tolly's Nala will be closed to navigation with effect from the 12th March, 1917, vide Notice dated the 10th February, 1917, published at page 187, Part II, of the Calcutta Gazette of the 14th idem, to enable these tidal observations to be made."

(b) The matter is still under correspondence with the Corporation."

(e) Is it a fact that the Principal of the Sibpur Engineering College does not take any active part in the work of instruction of the students and does not come into direct contact with them?

(f) If so, are the Government taking any steps to introduce a change in this matter with a view to relieving the Principal of his routine duties to enable him to exercise greater influence over the students?

Answer by the Hon'ble MR. HORNELL :—

"(a) & (b) The Governing Body of the Civil Engineering College, Sibpur, consists of ten members—nine Europeans and one Indian.

(c) & (d) No proposal for the reconstitution of the Governing Body is under the consideration of Government.

(e) The administrative duties of the Principal of the Civil Engineering College are such as to leave him very little time for actual teaching work, but he manages to see a good deal of his students in their daily occupations.

(b) Are the Government aware that in this plan two 40 feet and one 75 feet roadways were provided for?

(c) Are the Government aware that the said plan was considered at a Conference of the representatives of the Corporation and the Port Trust in connection with the proposal to widen Strand Road?

(d) Is it a fact that at this Conference the prospect of opening new roads on the Strand Bank was also held out?

(e) Are the Government aware that a general feeling exists amongst the Hindu population of the city that the policy of that plan is now being reversed and that warehouses are being regularly constructed without any consideration to the proper lay-out of the area or to its light and ventilation?

(f) Will the Government be pleased to lay on the table the proceedings of that Conference and a copy of the plan of the original lay-out?

Answer by the Hon'ble MR. COWLEY :—

*32. (a) Are the Government aware that the General Committee of the Corporation requested the Port Commissioners of Calcutta to provide a promenade for the Indian community in the north of the town from Howrah Bridge as far as practicable towards Baghbazar?

(b) Will the Government be pleased to state when the Port Commissioners will provide such a promenade?

(c) Are the Government aware that the General Committee of the Corporation also requested that a portion of the reclaimed land on the river bank on the south of the Prasanno Kumar Tagore Ghât be temporarily leased to the Corporation for the purpose of providing an enclosed garden or grassy plot for the people in the northern part of the town?

(d) Will the Government be pleased to state what has been the result of the Corporation's representations in this matter?

(e) Are the Government aware that both promenade and sitting accommodation have been provided by the Port Commissioners in the southern part of the town?

(f) Is it not a fact that guarantees were given by Lord Dalhousie in his despatch dated the 22nd October, 1852, that lands given for the Strand Road and river frontage would be used not for building purposes but for public purposes connected with the trade, the traffic, the health and the convenience of the community?

Answer by the Hon'ble MR. COWLEY :—

" (a), (b), (c) & (d) A proposal for a river-side promenade north of Howrah Bridge has been recently under the consideration of the Improvement Trust, the Calcutta Corporation and the Port Commissioners. No agreement has yet been arrived at. If the bodies concerned ultimately fail to arrive at an agreement Government are prepared to assist them to do so.

* 33. (a) Are the Government aware of the difficulties that have arisen, in the western part of the Dacca district, on account of the silting up of the Buriganga and the Dhaleshwari, in the way of internal communication, sanitation, water-supply and trade facilities?

(b) What measures have been adopted, so far, for the removal of these difficulties and under what expert advice and supervision?

(c) Is there any definite and comprehensive scheme before Government for the improvement of these rivers?

(d) If so, under what expert advice has such a scheme been formulated?

(e) Will the Government be pleased to lay on the table a statement showing, year by year, the amount spent, in the last ten years, in improving the condition of these rivers and the result, generally, thereof?

Answer by the Hon'ble MR. COWLEY :—

"(a) Yes.

(b) Dredging and bandelling of the shoals in both the Dhaleshwari and the Buriganga rivers have been undertaken since the year 1906-07 for the removal of the difficulties of navigation. These measures have been adopted with the advice of the officers of the Public Works Department and carried out under the supervision of the Executive Engineer, Dacca Division.

(c) & (d) There is no definite and comprehensive scheme for the improvement of these rivers beyond systematic dredging and bandelling.

(e) The expenditure during the past 10 years, inclusive of the expenditure up to January 1917, has amounted to Rs. 4,03,088 (vide statement laid upon the table). The annual reports on training works show that the operations generally result in improved conditions towards the end of the winter season but are not of a permanent nature. Dredging operations have been discontinued since 1915-16."

UNSTARRED QUESTIONS.

(The Answers to which were laid on the table.)

By the Hon'ble KUMAR SHIB SHEKHARESWAR RAY :—

Narrow bridges on the Sara-Serajganj Railway.

1. (a) Are the Government aware that great inconvenience is felt by the people of Pabna on account of the low and narrow bridges and insufficient number of culverts between the stations Bhangura and Ullapara on the Sara-Serajganj Railway?

(b) Is it a fact that the rivers between the above two stations are largely used by country-boats engaged in jute and other trades?

(c) Is it a fact that the railway bridges between the above two stations are too low and narrow to allow boats to pass with safety under them during the rains?

(d) Is it a fact that some fatal accidents took place last year near those bridges, involving the loss of some lives and boats?

(e) Is it a fact that the drainage of the adjoining villages is seriously affected on account of the insufficient number of culverts in the railway embankment between the above two stations and that a large area in the locality has become unfit for cultivation on account of the defective drainage?

(f) Is it a fact that since the railway line has been constructed, serious outbreaks of malaria are of yearly occurrence in the locality?

(g) Are the Government considering the desirability of making an inquiry into the matters referred to in the above questions?

Answer by the Hon'ble MR. COWLEY :—

"(a) & (c) Government have received complaints that some of the smaller culverts on the Bhangura-Ullapara section of this railway have insufficient headway, with the result that boats have sometimes to make a detour in order to pass under one of the bridges with larger headway.

(b) Yes.

(d) No fatal accidents have been reported to the local authorities.

(e) The information before Government is to the effect that the waterways, as distinct from the headways, are sufficient and that the drainage of the country has not been affected.

(f) No; the District Officer reports that the health of the locality has improved during recent years.

(g) The question of the headways and waterways in this stretch of line has already been carefully investigated by the Superintending Engineer and the District Officer, with the result noted above. Government represented to the Railway Board last year that the type of girder should be changed in some of the smaller bridges so as to provide greater headway for boats. As difficulty was experienced in obtaining girders of the new type, this Government consented, as a temporary measure, to the retention of the present girders; but Government are again addressing the Railway Board on the subject. The Superintending Engineer and the District Officer have also been asked to make a further investigation regarding the waterways during the rains of 1917 and to submit a report containing their final recommendations."

(b) In these districts will the Government be pleased to state, district by district,—

(i) on what principle the settlement costs have been charged, i.e., whether they have been charged on the quantity of land contained in each holding or on its rent or according to its valuation;

(ii) on what principle the costs have been apportioned between the occupancy raiyat and his immediate superior landlord;

(iii) how the costs have been apportioned amongst the different grades of landlords, i.e., revenue-payers, pattanidars, darpattanidars, etc.; and

(iv) whether any distinction has been made between the charges on arable and waste lands?

(c) In those districts where proceedings in connection with the recovery of costs have been completed or are in progress, will the Government be pleased to state, district by district,—

(i) what have been the net expenses of the settlement operations;

(ii) what amount has been contributed by the Government;

(iii) what amount has been estimated as recoverable costs; and

(iv) what has been actually recovered?

Telegraphic communication, etc., to and from Hatiya.

III. (a) Are the Government aware that the inhabitants of the island of Hatiya, within the district of Noakhali, are suffering from great hardship for want of telegraphic communication with the mainland?

(b) Are the Government also aware that there is no arrangement for the daily despatch of mails to and from the island of Hatiya?

(c) Have the Government before them any proposal to remove these grievances?

Answer by the Hon'ble MR. COWLEY :—

"(a) Government are aware that there is no telegraphic communication between Hatiya and Noakhali, but are not aware that this entails great hardship on its inhabitants.

(b) Government are aware that at present there is no arrangement for the daily despatch of mails to and from the island of Hatiya. There are two lines of steamers touching at Hatiya—

(1) the Ichakhali-Hatiya service; and

(2) the Barisal-Chittagong service.

Both were daily services until August last, when owing to the River Steam Navigation Company's steamers being requisitioned for war purposes the Ichakhali-Hatiya service was converted into a tri-weekly service. Mails for Hatiya are at present carried exclusively by this service.

(c) It would be no advantage to send postal articles posted at Noakhali for Hatiya or vice versâ viâ Barisal. The Postmaster-General is now considering whether an improvement can be effected as regards letters to and from other places."

(iv) what attempt, if any, has been made to appoint Muhammadan Typists to these posts; and

(v) how many leave and temporary vacancies occurred during the year 1916 in these posts and how many of them were filled up by Muhammadans?

Answer by the Hon'ble MR. DONALD :—

"(i), (ii), (iii) & (v) A statement showing the details required by the Hon'ble Member is laid on the table.

(iv) No special attempts are made to recruit Muhammadans as Stenographers and Typists. All vacancies are duly advertised and applications invited. The most suitable candidates are then selected. In the case of stenographers, their competence is judged by the Secretary or Head of the Department after actual experience of the work of the best candidate available. (i) the minimum qualification required for the appointment of assistants in the lower division of the Bengal Secretariat;

(ii) whether any Hindu assistants have been appointed since the reconstitution of Bengal in 1912, whose educational qualifications fell short of the required standard, and, if so, how many were so appointed and what were their qualifications?

(iii) how many Muhammadan assistants have been appointed since the modification of the partition in 1912 whose qualifications similarly fell below the required standard?

Questions and Answers.

Answer by the Hon'ble MR. DONALD :—

"(i) The minimum qualification required for the appointment of assistants in the lower division of the Bengal Secretariat is—

(a) In the case of Indians—The pass certificate of the Intermediate or any higher examination of an Indian University or the Final examination of the advanced Commercial Classes.

(b) In the case of Europeans or Anglo-Indians—The pass certificate of the Intermediate examination of an Indian University, or the High School Pass Examination, the Senior Cambridge Local Examination, the Cambridge Senior School Certificate Examination, or the Final examination of the advanced Commercial Classes.

(ii) Since 1912 seven Hindu assistants have been appointed whose educational qualifications fell short of the required standard. Of these, four had read up to the I.A. standard, one had passed the Entrance Examination, and two had read up to the Entrance.

(b) If the answer to clause (a) of the question is in the affirmative, will the Government be pleased to state whether they are considering the desirability of asking the authorities to give preference to Bengali Muhammadans of equal qualifications over non-Bengalis in filling up future vacancies in that institution?

(b) Are there any fixed periods for which the Deputy Director and other officers of any joint staff of the department, are expected to tour and otherwise work within the jurisdiction of Bengal?

(c) For how many days in the year did the Deputy Director reside in Bengal since 1912; and how much touring was done by him in Bengal, and Bihar and Orissa, respectively, during these periods?

Questions and Answers.

Answer by the Hon'ble MR. KERR :—

"(a) The expenditure is shared equally on the principle that the work of the Fishery Department is equally beneficial to the two provinces.

(b) No. One of the two Superintendents works principally in Bengal and the other in Bihar and Orissa.

(c) The headquarters of the Deputy Director are at Calcutta. The numbers of days spent on tour each year and the districts visited are mentioned in the last four annual reports, copies of which have been sent to the Hon'ble Member and placed on the Library table. To calculate the number of days spent in each Province would involve labour incommensurate with the value of the information."

(d) To what extent will the recent discovery, that carps breed in tanks as well as in running water, affect this scheme?

(e) To what practical use is the said discovery being put by the department?

(f) What progress has been made in the inquiries regarding predatory fish of the larger forms, which inquiries were stated in Bulletin No. 5 of the Department of Fisheries to have "recently commenced," and where are the said inquiries being carried on?

(g) When does the department expect to complete its enquiries on carp and hilsa and predatory fish, respectively?

Answer by the Hon'ble MR. KERR :—

"(a) The Hon'ble Member will find full particulars in the four annual reports referred to in the reply to Question VII. It is not possible to enumerate all the attempts which are made during a period of research.

(b) No.

(c) None.

(d) It has not been discovered that carp breed in ordinary tanks, but that they breed in the bandhs described in the last year's annual report. The discovery will facilitate the breeding of carp.

(e) Fry will be collected and distributed from these bandhs. Steps have been taken to make it known in the districts in which such bandhs exist how they should be constructed, so that the conditions under which carp breed may be provided.

(f) In the Bulletin referred to by the Hon'ble Member he will see that the inquiries were carried on in Calcutta and Bankipore. The state of progress of the inquiries is described on page 4 of the last annual report.

(g) Government cannot say when nor in what order the inquiries referred to will be finished."

LIST OF BUSINESS—ITEM No. 3.

THE AMENDED DRAFT FINANCIAL STATEMENT.*

The Hon'ble Mr. Beatson Bell presented the Amended Draft Financial Statement for Bengal for 1917-18 :—

He said :—" My Lord, I have the honour to present the amended Draft Financial Statement for 1917-18. This statement has been drawn up at considerable length and a copy has been furnished to every Member of the House. Along with each copy I sent a memorandum dated 24th February. Members have, therefore, no doubt studied the Budget in considerable detail and it is unnecessary that I should go over it again at this stage. Suffice it to say that it is once more a War Budget, prepared on strictly economical lines. The House will remember that the principle which was laid down last year was that our total expenditure should not exceed our total income. This year the same general principle has been adopted, but the Government of India have allowed us to be a little more liberal than in the previous year. In other words, they have allowed our expenditure to exceed our income by a little more than nine lakhs. That is the main outline of the Budget and in the course of this day's sitting different official members will explain in more detail the various heads of the Budget.

I must, however, draw the attention of the House to the further memorandum which I circulated on the 3rd March. This memorandum contained certain corrections and additions which have been inserted under the orders of the Government of India. One important addition, will, I am sure, be welcomed by Members on both sides of the House. The Government of India have made a recurring Imperial assignment of nine lakhs for the improvement of the pay and training of teachers. With these few words, I beg to present the Budget for the consideration of the House."

"In my financial capacity I have already placed the Draft Financial Statement in the hands of every Member. That statement is, I hope fairly

Amended Draft Financial Statement.

Mr. Beatson Bell.

full and clear. It now falls to me in my administrative capacity to introduce certain heads of the Budget. Naturally I have little to add to what I have already placed before the House. I begin with "Land Revenue." The current year has been more favourable than we anticipated. Good harvests and the prosperous condition of the jute trade stimulated collections, and we expect to exceed the provincial estimate of receipts by Rs. 2,73,000. The expenditure under land revenue has been larger than we estimated, and we have provided for an increase of Rs. 44,000. In view of the favourable conditions now prevailing we anticipate an increase of Rs. 3,43,000 in our provincial land revenue receipts in the next year, and we have also provided for an increased expenditure of Rs. 1,05,000 on certain much-needed reforms and improvements.

Major surveys and settlements are hardly within the scope of this Council. The Imperial Government bears the cost and the Imperial Government receives the income. I must, however, say a few words for the information of the House. Owing to the financial situation which arose from the war we postponed, with great regret, the operations in Bankura and Jessore. This threw many deserving men out of work. The fate of these men was the subject of a special resolution of this House. We have done what we could for them, but many of them are still unemployed and are suffering great hardship. If the operations in Jessore and Bankura remain still longer in abeyance the situation will be further aggravated, for an additional batch of men, now working in Rajshahi, will be thrown out of employment. Moreover, it would be hard for the people of Jessore and Bankura that the boon of a record-of-rights should be again delayed to them. Fortunately, the general financial situation of the survey and settlement operations is such that we have felt justified in resuming the work in Jessore and Bankura and in beginning some traverse survey in Nadia. In spite of these new operations we estimate that in the year 1917-18 the major survey and settlement operations will bring in an income of Rs. 27,50,000 against an expenditure of Rs. 21,31,000. In other words, the Government of India will receive from these departments a satisfactory surplus of more than 6 lakhs. I should add, however, that even after the new operations, which I have just indicated, have been undertaken, the Survey and Settlement Departments will by no means be working at their full strength. The work in progress will be about three-fourths of what it would have been in normal circumstances.

As regards Excise, the actual receipts in 1915-16 amounted to Rs. 1,51,40,074 against Rs. 1,50,00,000 anticipated last year. The revised estimate was based on ten months' actuals, but there was an increased consumption of country spirit in the last quarter of the year, and this accounts for the increase in excise revenue in 1915-16. The large decrease in consumption for 1914-15 noticed last year continued generally, country spirit showed a further falling off of 52,799 proof gallons, and ganja and opium of 446 and 266 maunds, respectively, in 1915-16, as compared with the preceding year.

The sanctioned estimate of revenue for 1916-17 was Rs. 1,50,50,000, but it has been reduced to Rs. 1,47,00,000 in view of the continued decrease in the consumption of country spirit and opium during the first ten months of the current year, namely, 24,474 gallons in country spirit and 5,532 seers in opium. The consumption of ganja increased, however, by 76 seers during the same period, the increase occurring in January last. The estimate for next year has been placed at Rs. 1,48,00,000, providing for an increase of 1 lakh over the revised estimate for the current year. The excise settlements already made in the several districts point to an increase of revenue of about Rs. 2,48,000 over the current year's settlements, but if war continues and the economic condition of the people shows no improvement the full increase may not be realised.

As for expenditure, the only thing to notice is the appointment of the second Deputy Commissioner of Excise and Salt. Since the reorganisation of the Excise Department was carried out only one Deputy Commissioner of Excise and Salt out of the two sanctioned in the scheme had been appointed. He had been supervising the preventive work in the districts as well as the work of the Excise Intelligence Bureau. He has also been doing some of the work of the Collector of Excise, Calcutta. Recently it became very difficult for one officer to cope with all these duties, and a second Deputy Commissioner of Excise and Salt had, therefore, to be appointed for the Dacca, Chittagong and Rajshahi Divisions. The necessary provision for this officer has been made in the budget estimate for the next year.

Amended Draft Financial Statement.

Mr. Beatson Bell.

As regards the expenditure head of General Administration, I have nothing to add to the explanations contained in the Financial Statement.

As regards Ports and Pilotage there is also little to be said. The war has caused a further shrinkage both in receipts and in expenditure. The grant of 1½ lakhs to Chittagong Port is being continued in the coming year. This, however, will be the last year of the existing five years' arrangement.

As regards Stamps, I have again nothing to add to what is contained in the Financial Statement.

As for Income-Tax expenditure, I would explain that the figures represent the cost of establishment for the collection of the tax. In consequence of the introduction of the new Income Tax Act, V of 1916, it was found necessary to appoint an Assistant Collector, one Assessor, 10 Clerks and certain menials to cope with the increase of work in the Calcutta Income Tax Office from the middle of the year. Provision has been made for the retention of the Assistant Collector and the additional establishment for the whole of the year 1917-18.

Turning to the Interest Budget this represents for the most part the loan transactions of the Local Government. We borrow money from the Imperial Government and re-lend it under the Land Improvement and the Agriculturists' Loans Act to Co-operative Societies, on drainage and embankment advances to land-holders and notabilities and to mufassal Municipalities and District Boards. The receipts represent the interest we recover. The figures are shown in paragraph 20 of the Financial Statement.

Refunds and drawbacks occur in the different departments and the details are shown at page 47 of the Financial Statement. We budget on the basis of the average actuals of the past three years, excluding special payments.

I now deal with "Forests"—The revised estimates of receipts for the current year have been raised from 11½ lakhs to 12¾ lakhs. This increase is mainly due to larger sales of timber in the Sundarbans where exploitation has been resumed and in Buxa where timber was left unsold in the preceding year. For next year we have estimated a revenue of 13 lakhs which allows for a moderate increase in sales owing to anticipated improvement in the timber market. On the expenditure side economy has been observed by the curtailment under communications and improvement and extension of forests, with the result that the current year's sanctioned estimate has been reduced by Rs. 64,000. The estimate of expenditure for 1917-18 is Rs. 6,52,000. This provides for preparation of a working plan for the Kurseong forests and larger expenditure on communications and buildings.

Turning to the Budget of the Agricultural and Veterinary Departments no explanation is called for as to the receipts, which are not of much importance. The estimates for the current and next years have been based on the actuals of the first eight months of 1916-17. On the expenditure side of the Budget under these heads Rs. 11,29,000 was provided for the current year, but this has been reduced to 11 lakhs in the revised estimate. The decrease is due to larger recoveries on account of pay of Veterinary Assistants contributed by local bodies. The estimate for 1917-18 is Rs. 12,26,000, which provides for the normal work of the Agricultural and Veterinary Departments, while provision has been made for the expansion of the Co-operative Department on a small scale.

Amended Draft Financial Statement.

Surgeon General Edwards.

Under the head "Scientific and Miscellaneous Departments" the estimate of receipts has been raised from Rs. 5,22,000 to Rs. 7,50,000. The increase is due to larger supplies of quinine to the Military and other Departments: this is expected to give us over 2¼ lakhs. For 1917-18 the estimate of receipts is Rs. 7,81,000. The revised estimate of expenditure under this head for the current year shows a reduction of Rs. 1,81,000 on the sanctioned estimate, owing to non-utilisation of the grants for the Director of Industries and for the development of industries. This, of course, is due to the presence of the Industrial Commission. The estimate of Rs. 5,83,000 for next year provides for the necessary development of the Cinchona Department and for grants to the Dacca and Darjeeling Museums.

The famine expenditure in Bankura during the current year amounted to Rs. 7,15,000. Of this sum Rs. 4,20,000 stood at the credit of this province during the current year under the Famine Insurance Scheme, and the Provincial share will amount to Rs. 1,48,000, being half of the remainder. The Secretary of State has recently sanctioned a new scheme under which famine expenditure will in future be shared by the Imperial and Provincial Governments in the proportion of ¾ths and ¼th, respectively. This scheme will take effect from 1st April, 1917.

In the Superannuation Budget the receipts represent the contributions paid by the different officers lent to foreign services and for the management of private estates. The charges represent pensions and gratuities which rise year by year with the increase in the number of claims to pensions, provision being made with reference to the average increase in the past years.

There is nothing special in the figures under Stationery and Printing to which I need draw attention. The Branch Secretariat Press has now vacated the buildings of the Military Accounts Department in Koila Ghat Street and occupies offices at Sealdah. This did not entail much additional expenditure.

Finally, as regards miscellaneous receipts and charges I have little to add to the explanation given in the Financial Statement. Owing to famine relief works in Bankura Rs. 90,000 is expected to be realised from the sale of khud rice and from manufactures by the weavers under relief in 1916-17, and the revised estimate of receipts has been raised from Rs. 6,52,000 to Rs. 7,37,000. No such receipts can be anticipated in 1917-18, and the Budget for that year is Rs. 6,58,000.

On the expenditure side we have provided 1 lakh for gratuitous relief in any district which may suffer owing to flood or other causes. The question of raising the pay of the menials of the several departments of Government both for Calcutta and the mufassal is under consideration, and the Government of India have been addressed on the subject. But we cannot expect to give effect to any scheme of this kind before the conclusion of the war. In the current year about Rs. 3,78,400 was spent on the payment of grain compensation allowance, and a provision of 4 lakhs has been made for the same account in the Budget for 1917-18."

The Hon'ble SURGEON GENERAL EDWARDS introduced the following heads:—

REVENUE—

24—Medical.

He said:—

"MY LORD, we have at the present moment 35 Indian Medical Service Officers, 3 Civil Assistant Surgeons, 28 Military Assistant Surgeons and 69

Mr. Cowley.

Sub-Assistant Surgeons at the Front and on Military duty. In spite of the absence of so many of our Medical Officers the work of our Medical Department is being carried on fairly satisfactorily, with the help of temporarily enlisted men. I may add here that although only two Sub-Assistant Surgeons volunteered for active service from Bengal, sixteen more have so volunteered since going to military duty in India, and one man has volunteered for active service in the Frontier of India.

Work on the Ranchi Lunatic Asylum has been resumed and we now hear that it may be ready for Europeans during the next cold weather. When it is ready the present Asylum at Bhowanipur must be entirely pulled down, and rebuilt as an "under observation" Hospital for mental cases. At present we have no such place for Indian patients and the need of such an Hospital is very urgently felt. I propose allotting 15 beds for Indian, 5 for European "under observation" cases and 10 beds for cases of lunacy, suitable for clinical material.

The improvements spoken of last year have been carried out in the Dacca and Berhampore Asylums.

The opening of the Tropical School must be postponed until after the war, when we also hope to complete the East wing, this will contain an out-patient department.

To make room for this extension the present morgue, so long condemned, must be moved.

Plans and specifications are being prepared for a new and up-to-date morgue with a small mortuary chapel; a suitable site has been obtained.

We have had no money from Government for building the new Eye Hospital so very urgently required and we must continue to wait for this. I am glad to say though that 3 lakhs have been allotted this year to a still more urgent requirement and that is a barrack for Medical College Hospital servants. The building of this will put an end to a very grave scandal.

The Belgachia Medical College is in course of construction and we are likely to be called on this year to redeem a part of the promise made regarding it.

During the past year the students of the Campbell and Dacca Schools have been increased from 300 and 200 respectively to 350 and 250. A scheme is now before Government to increase them to 500 and 400, respectively.

The re-building of the Dacca Mitford Hospital is progressing most satisfactorily and has made great progress under the able management of Colonel Newman, Civil Surgeon.

Owing to the generosity of Mr. Baldeo Das Birla, we are this year to have an open air Consumption Ward on the roof of the Medical College Hospital, this will cost Rs. 50,000 and will fill a very urgent need. The open air wards in the Presidency General Hospital have been used as ordinary wards during quadrennial repairs and have proved a complete success; the Medical College Hospital wards will be on the same plan. I may add that, this Rs. 50,000 is in addition to Rs. 50,000 given by Mr. Baldeo Das Birla to the Tropical School.

I have nothing further of note to call attention to."

He said :—

"MY LORD, I have the honour to introduce for the consideration of Council the Public Works heads of the Budget entitled Irrigation Major Works, XXIX—Receipts and 42—Expenditure and Minor Works and Navigation XXX—Receipts and 43—Expenditure. The Major Works with which we have to deal in this Presidency, as at present constituted, are the Midnapore and Hijli Tidal Canals ; the latter is for navigation only, while the former provides for both irrigation and navigation. The receipts of the current year are expected to be somewhat better than the Budget by Rs. 33,000 owing to the increase in the area under lease from the Midnapore Canal. As, however, the area under lease is not likely to remain the same during the year 1917-18 the Budget for 1917-18 shows a decrease as compared with the revised estimate for 1916-17. Owing to railway competition the navigation receipts from these canals have not improved. There has been no increase in the expenditure of the current year as compared with the expenditure of 1915-16 and none is anticipated during 1917-18. I now turn to the heading "Minor Works and Navigation" which is more important in its effect upon Provincial revenues. The chief sources of revenue under this head are the tolls received from navigation on the Calcutta canals, the Sundarbans route and the Madaripur Bhil route which together form the navigable route for boats and inland steamers between Calcutta and Eastern Bengal. In this respect I have nothing to add to the statements which have been made in paragraph 34 of the Amended Draft Financial Statement. The current year's revised estimate of expenditure under Minor Works and Navigation remains practically the same as the Budge provision. For the year 1917-18 a total provision of Rs. 22,11,000 has been made and in this connection I have nothing to add to the statements which have been made in paragraph 64 of the Amended Draft Financial Statement.

I have also to introduce for the consideration of the Council the Budget for Civil Works in charge of the Public Works Department.

I have nothing to add to the statements which have been made under this head on pages 3, 4, 15, 28 and 29 of the Amended Draft Financial Statement.

Paragraph 65 on pages 28 and 29 deals with the expenditure in this and the coming year. The decrease of Rs. 1,52,000 under Establishment in the revised Budget of expenditure for this year is due partly to an increase in the receipts from the Government of India as contribution towards the establishment employed on Imperial Works and partly to saving on account of officers on Foreign and Military Service.

For the coming year, after providing for establishment and repairs and for the completion of works which will be in progress on the 1st April, there is a sum of Rs. 24,66,000 left for new minor and major works, the distribution of which is shown on pages 28 and 29 of the statement.

LIST OF BUSINESS—ITEM No. 7.

The Hon'ble MR. LYON introduced the following heads :—

REVENUE—

XVII—Police.

EXPENDITURE—

20—Police.

REVENUE—

XVI B—Jails.

EXPENDITURE—

19 B—Jails.

He said :—

"MY LORD, I have to introduce the heads Jails and Police of the Amended Financial Statement. On the subject of Jails there is very little to be stated and I have few remarks to add to those given in the Financial Statement. The estimate for receipts is larger than any as yet made for such receipts in the Presidency of Bengal—the figure amounting to 11 lakhs, as compared with 7 lakhs in 1912-13. This is mainly due to continued military requirements in the way of gunny, bandages and blankets.

The figure for expenditure stands at Rs. 28,89,000 as compared with Rs. 19,61,832 in 1912-13. The high figures are due to a considerable increase in the number of prisoners since 1912-13, involving greater expenditure on dietary and hospital charges. There will also be large expenditure on raw materials which will, however, go to swell the receipts on account of manufactured articles. There is one increase in expenditure, moreover, which should be a cause for congratulation, and that is the rise in the cost of the Warder Establishment. The improvement in the pay and prospects of the Warders was long overdue, and the extra sum now budgetted for represents an increase in pay which has been well earned.

Taking next the head Police, it is unnecessary to add anything to the entries made in the Financial Statement under the head of receipts.

It has been found necessary to set down a large figure for expenditure for the coming financial year on account of Police charges, the total being Rs. 1,34,38,000, as compared with a revised estimate of Rs. 1,12,27,000 in 1916-17 and an estimate of Rs. 83,99,859 in 1912-13.

The estimates for new schemes in connection with the Police, amounting to a very considerable figure, were laid before the Finance Committee and received their unanimous approval. We may claim, I think, that this result was due to the grave necessities of the Force and the moderation of the estimates presented as compared with those necessities.

A considerable increase in the expenditure on the Police Force has long been anticipated, and although financial exigencies have delayed many reforms which will cost considerable sums of money, it has been found that there are other reforms which are of such urgent importance that it is necessary to include them even during the progress of the war. During the Amended Draft Financial Statement.

Mr. Lyon.

Budget debate last year it was pointed out that the list of desirable requirements in Police administration was a very long one and would involve a very large sum of money. We have now entered in the Budget provision for a considerable increase of expenditure in order to bring the Force up to its proper strength, to improve the training of officers and men, to give them better houses and to reward more adequately those who are engaged on special duties of an arduous and dangerous nature.

In the matter of buildings you will find that the sum of 12 lakhs appears under the appropriate heading in the Public Works Budget. This sum will enable us to make a beginning in dealing with the worst cases, in which our police officers are at present housed in miserably inadequate and unhealthy buildings, and we hope to wipe off gradually our heavy arrears in this respect.

As to the other schemes, I note especially :—

(1) The estimate of Rs. 71,845 for the re-organization and revision of the Special Branch Establishment of the Calcutta Police, which deals mainly with seditious and anarchical crime in this city. Connected with this subject is the item of Rs. 30,000 for the re-organization of the Criminal Investigation Department.

(2) Further provision made for the safety of the city by the appointment of additional Sergeants at a cost of Rs. 32,236.

(3) The provision for a regular river patrol on the river Hooghly in Calcutta. This scheme is connected with the prevention of the illicit importation of arms into India, but should also prove an effective check on much of the evasion of preventive arrangements which is now believed to take place. The main portion of the item of Rs. 2,34,000 entered in the Budget is for non-recurring expenditure, which amounts to Rs. 2,11,000.

(4) The provision made for further progress in the work of re-organising the subordinate Police in Eastern Bengal, including both new works and works in progress. These two items amount to 4 lakhs of rupees, and this expenditure will be incurred in pursuance of a carefully thought out scheme which was prepared and sanctioned some years back.

(5) The re-organisation of the Howrah Town Police. This includes the policing of the towns of Howrah, Liloöah and Bally in accordance with a scheme which has been submitted to the Secretary of State. It is necessitated by the large increase in the population of these towns and the inadequacy of the present Force, which was organised to meet different circumstances, to deal with this population.

(6) The expenditure of Rs. 1,06,000 on the River Police Scheme of Eastern Bengal, which may be taken with the entry of Rs. 39,000 on account of the station boat system in the same part of the province. It seems unnecessary to review again the necessity for the improvement of the system of policing the great rivers of Eastern Bengal. The action taken in this direction has already proved extremely successful, and Government wish to persevere with the scheme until a really efficient system has been finally established.

(7) In connection with these schemes for Eastern Bengal may be mentioned the establishment of a Fifth Police Range, under a Deputy Inspector-General, which will relieve the Dacca Range and will include the districts of Faridpur, Bakarganj, Noakhali and Chittagong as well as the River Police system.

(8) The sum of Rs. 2,50,000 entered for the revision of the District Intelligence Branch Establishment. This expenditure is required in order to decentralise the work of the Intelligence Branch and to bring the district police officers, who have a larger knowledge of the local conditions of the area

Amended Draft Financial Statement.

Mr. Lyon.

within which they work, into more effective touch with the Intelligence Branch in Calcutta. It is believed that the general effect of this scheme will be to increase considerably the efficient working of this most important branch.

(9) The provision of Rs. 73,154 to raise the proportion of the ordinary reserves of Head Constables and Constables. It is hoped by means of this provision to remove what is a serious hardship to the Police Force by raising its reserve to the proper strength. The general curtailment of leave which has been the result of the inadequacy of the present reserve has caused some discontent which has interfered with the recruiting of the Force, and Government have found it impossible to do justice to their men and to provide for the leave necessitated by illness and over-work without adding largely to the existing reserves.

(10) I may refer finally to the entry of Rs. 1,37,000 as a grant for house rent to Sub-Inspectors and officers of lower rank who are entitled under the orders of the Government of India to free quarters but for whom it has not yet been found possible to provide such quarters. This is a mere act of justice to these officers and the Government hope that it will be accepted as such.

Government would have been very glad had it been possible to avoid a large increase of expenditure on Police at the present time, when it is necessary to observe economy in the administration of all departments. They feel, however, that the present circumstances of the Police Force in Bengal and the present political situation give full warrant for the expenditure which they are proposing in the coming year and the support which has been given to their proposals by the Finance Committee has confirmed their views in this respect.

This may be the last occasion upon which I shall have to refer in this Council to the general work of the Police Force of this Presidency during the period covered by your Excellency's term of Government from April, 1912, to the present date, and I desire to take this opportunity of expressing once again my own heartfelt appreciation and that of this Government of the admirable work that has been done by that Force for the maintenance of law and order in the Presidency since the repartition in 1912. They have been faced with a situation of extreme difficulty. In the midst of the work of reorganising the Force and introducing a far reaching system of reform, they have had to deal with economic distress reacting on local tranquillity, with the disturbances due to the outbreak of the war and with a revolutionary conspiracy having its ramifications in every corner of the Province.

I can claim for them not only earnest endeavour, conspicuous courage and loyalty, but also a remarkable degree of success, especially in dealing with the serious outbreak of revolutionary crime, their action against which has exposed them to very searching criticism. As evidence of their success, I would point especially to the suppression of the grave outbreak of non-political dacoities in the district of Bakarganj in 1915, and to their dealings with political crime in Bengal since their methods have had time to exercise their full weight and since, in consequence of them, they have been in constant receipt of full and accurate information concerning the inner workings of the conspiracy. While the difficulties as to the prosecution of cases in Court still continue, I can inform the Council that of the political crimes that have been committed since 1st January, 1914, the investigations of the Police have resulted in full information as to the perpetrators and the facts of over 90 per cent., while of the perpetrators the large majority are actually now under restraint. The Government cannot flatter themselves that these crimes are at an end. There are desperate men still at large, outlaws from society, and the very pressure which is being exercised upon these men may lead to the commission of further crime. But as a prominent Bengal non-official gentleman said to me the other day, people do now sleep more comfortably in their beds, both in Calcutta and the mufassal, than they did some time back, and for the results which have actually been obtained, we all, the Government, the people and each one of us who values the good name and the fair prospects of Bengal, owe a deep debt of gratitude to the officers and men, European and Indian, of the Bengal Police."

LIST OF BUSINESS—ITEM No. 8.

The Hon'ble MR. HORNELL introduced the following heads :—

Revenue—

XIX.—Education.

Expenditure—

22. Education.

He said :—

"MY LORD, I have the honour to introduce for the consideration of the Council the heads of Revenue and Expenditure in the Education Budget for the year 1917-18.

Receipts.—The Education Department being one of the spending departments of Government, the revenue side of the Budget has little interest except from the financier's point of view. In the Budget which I am presenting to the Council, there is no item of special interest or importance except the fact that the steady increase in the educational receipts has been maintained as the following figures will show :—

			Rs.
1912-13	... Actuals	...	... 7,78,000
1913-14	... Do.	...	... 8,11,000
1914-15	... Do.	...	... 8,47,000
1915-16	... Do.	...	... 8,87,000
1916-17	... Sanctioned estimate		... 9,05,000
1917-18	... Estimate	...	... 9,28,000

Expenditure.—Up to the year 1914-15, there was a steady growth in educational expenditure. This has now been arrested. The expenditure in 1915-16 actually showed a decline. But it is now again on the upward grade and the Budget for the current year and the estimate for the coming year are both in excess of the expenditure figure for 1915-16 : but both these figures are still below the expenditure figure for 1914-15. The following figures explain the situation :—

			Rs.
1911-12	... Actuals	...	... 61,22,000
1912-13	... Do.	...	... 73,77,000
1913-14	... Do.	...	... 81,13,000
1914-15	... Do.	...	... 92,07,000
1915-16	... Do.	...	... 84,78,000
1916-17	... Sanctioned budget		... 88,30,000
1917-18	... Estimate	...	... 89,13,000

Amended Draft Financial Statement.

Mr. Hornell.

The estimate under review shows an increase of Rs. 83,000 over the sanctioned Budget estimate for the current year. The increase is distributed as follows :—

	Increase over 1916-17 sanctioned Budget.	Decrease.
	Rs.	Rs.
University	No change	.....
Direction	5,000	.....
Inspection	1,000	.....
Government Colleges, General ...	14,000	.....
Ditto Provincial ...	.....	2,000
Government Schools, General ...	40,000	.....
Ditto Special ...	.....	14,000
Grants-in-aid	96,000	.....
Scholarships	16,000	.....
Miscellaneous	2,000	.....
Refunds	1,000	.....
Expenditure from non-recurring assignment of 75 lakhs	.....	31,000
Recurring grant for Dacca University and Hostels	.....	45,000
	1,75,000	92,000

The total increase is, therefore, Rs. 83,000.

The Financial Statement explains the increase and the decrease in detail and it is unnecessary for me to take up the time of the Council by repeating the explanation. I will do no more than state briefly a few outstanding features of the estimate for the year in prospect :—

(a) A provision of Rs. 21,072 has been made for the provincialisation of the High Schools at Bhola, Jhalakati, Pirojpur and Jamalpur. These schools were temporarily taken over by the late Government of Eastern Bengal and Assam. It is now proposed to bring them permanently under the direct management of Government. The provision represents the additional recurring charge that Government will have to incur in order to bring the schools into line with other Government High Schools. A large sum of about Rs. 5 lakhs will also eventually be required for new buildings for these schools but under present financial conditions it has not been found possible to make any provision for this non-recurring expenditure.

(b) As in the current year, provision for the Hastings House School has been included under "Government Schools, General"—"High Schools for Boys." This is not a new charge.

(c) A provision of Rs. 25,000 has been included under "Grants-in-aid" for grants to Madrassahs adopting the reformed course. The cost of introducing the Reformed Madrassah scheme was calculated to be about Rs. 1,33,000. The whole amount was not required at once for the scheme was to be worked up to gradually. A start was made with Rs. 60,000 and for two years this sum sufficed. A stage has now been reached at which we must have more money to carry on the scheme. Otherwise the whole scheme must die. An additional sum of Rs. 25,000 has therefore been provided to enable us to continue the scheme.

I now turn to the Budget allotments which have been made from the Imperial assignments. There is nothing to comment on as regards the recurring grants. These have all been provided in full with the exception of those which were assigned to the Dacca University. A short explanation is, however, necessary in regard to the allotments made out of the unspent balances of the non-recurring grants. A total provision of Rs. 3,79,000 has been made against all the non-recurring Imperial grants, viz., Rs. 40,000 under "Expenditure from the non-recurring grant of Rs. 75 lakhs (1912-13)" and Rs. 3,39,000 under "Grants-in-aid." The sum of Rs. 40,000 is intended to cover the cost of constructing servants' quarters, etc., in connection with the Bethune College. The sum of Rs. 3,39,090 represents a contribution towards the cost of the construction of undergraduates' hostels attached to private colleges in Calcutta, and represents the final portion of the unspent balance of Rs. 3,50,000, which latter amount, as I stated in March last year, this Government undertook to pay if necessary to the University of Calcutta in supplement of the Imperial grant of Rs. 10,00,000 made by the Government direct to that body for the purpose to which I have just referred."

Amended Draft Financial Statement.

Nawab Sir Syed Shams-ul-Huda.

In this connection, I may in passing, refer to the grant of 9 lakhs of rupees, made by the Government of India for improving the pay and training of teachers. This is not shown under head 22 in the Amended Draft Financial Statement."

LIST OF BUSINESS—ITEM No. 9.

The Hon'ble NAWAB SIR SYED SHAMS-UL-HUDA introduced the following heads :—

EXPENDITURE—

19A.—Courts of Law.

24.—Sanitation.

REVENUE—

XXXI—Civil Works in charge of Civil Officers.

EXPENDITURE—

45.—Civil Works in charge of Civil Officers.

He said :—

"MY LORD, I rise to introduce the figures relating to Courts of Law.

The total Budget estimate for 1916-17 was Rs. 1,00,20,000, but the revised estimate has been reduced to Rs. 99,38,000 with reference to the actual charges of the first nine months of the year. The decrease is chiefly due to smaller payment of fees to pleaders in connection with criminal cases, and partly to the diminished expenditure under the heads "Contingencies of Civil and Sessions Courts" and the "Defence of India Act."

The total expenditure for 1917-18 has been estimated at Rs. 1,01,57,000. This includes a provision of Rs. 9,600 for three shorthand-writers in the High Court. The introduction, as an experimental measure for a period of one year, of the scheme for the employment of shorthand-writers in one Court on the Original Side has recently been sanctioned by the Government of India. The number of shorthand-writers has been fixed by the High Court at three, having regard to the fact that it takes three times as long to transcribe a shorthand note as it does to record the note. Provision has also been made for the revision of the establishments of the Original and Appellate Sides of the High Court, and the Receiver's Office establishment. Additional provision has further been made for the Additional Legal Remembrancer and his establishment, for a larger grant for fees to pleaders in criminal cases in the mufassal, and for increased charges under the Defence of India Act.

It has not been found possible to make provision in the Provincial Civil Works Budget for the year 1917-18 for any new Judicial Major Works, but a sum of Rs. 15,000 has been provided in the Budget for Judicial Minor Works.

EXPENDITURE—

Amended Draft Financial Statement.

Rai Priya Nath Mukharji Bahadur.

I have also the honour to introduce for the consideration of Council the figures relating to Sanitation.

The expenditure for the current year was originally estimated at Rs. 5,53,000 and has now been reduced to Rs. 5,15,000 owing principally to the surrender of sums not required for works of immediate and imperative necessity. The chief items of expenditure which have been sanctioned during the current year from the grants for sanitary improvements are shown in paragraph 54 of the draft Financial Statement. A beginning has been made with four experimental schemes designed by Dr. Bentley for the prevention of malaria, two of which are to be financed from a special grant of Rs. 50,000 from the Indian Research Fund.

As regards the Budget estimate for next year, I may explain that under the orders of the Government of India, sanitation has been made a separate major head in the Budget in order that the public may be able to find readily the provision proposed and the expenditure incurred on this important object. The estimate for 1917-18 amounts to Rs. 5,98,000 or Rs. 84,000 more than the sum provided in the revised estimate for the current year. Altogether, 2½ lakhs have been provided for works of sanitary improvements, and it is hoped that it would be possible to complete the schemes of Dr. Bentley to which I have already referred, and that they will enable a substantial advance to be made in the anti-malarial campaign.

I beg also to introduce the figures relating to Civil Works in charge of Civil Officers.

The Budget estimate of receipts for the current year was Rs. 1,59,000, but in the revised estimate this has been raised to Rs. 2,71,000. The increase is chiefly due to refunds made by Municipalities, of which Rs. 94,794 represents the amount refunded by the Narayanganj Municipality out of a grant of 1 lakh made to it in 1914-15 for a scheme which the Municipal Commissioners are at present unable to proceed with. The Budget estimate for 1917-18 is the same as the original estimate for the present year.

As regards expenditure, the decrease of Rs. 3,38,000 in the revised estimate is mainly attributable to the fact that the amount put down for the augmentation grants to District Boards was an overestimate. The estimate for 1917-18 is Rs. 8,59,000, of which details are given in paragraph 66 of the Financial Statement. These call for no comment."

LIST OF BUSINESS—ITEM No. 10.

The Hon'ble RAI PRIYA NATH MUKHARJI BAHADUR introduced the following heads :—

Revenue—

X.—Registration.

Expenditure—

12. Registration.

He said :—

"MY LORD, I beg to introduce the heads of revenue and expenditure of the Registration Department for the year 1917-18.

The receipts are estimated at Rs. 22 lakhs. We budgetted Rs. 20½ lakhs for 1916-17, but the actual receipts on the basis of the last nine months are expected to be better by Rs. 90,000, and we can reasonably estimate an excess of Rs. 60,000 for 1917-18 based on the normal growth of registration revenue. It is something, in these years of stress, for the department over which I have the honour to preside, to be able to present to the public revenues a handsome excess of a lakh and a half. It is due partly to cultivators having obtained very good prices for their jute, partly to the distress caused by high prices generally and floods and partial famine in certain districts. It is a peculiar feature of this Department that prosperity and adversity contribute almost equally towards increase in registrations. When people are well off they buy land and when they are hard up they mortgage and sell it. In either case, registration revenue increases.

Resolution.

Babu Ambika Charan Mazumdar.

On the expenditure side, the estimates provide for Rs. 11,36,000. The sanctioned estimate for the current financial year is Rs. 27,000 less. But owing to the increase in registrations the expenditure under 'Temporary Establishment' has been larger and the current year's estimate had to be revised. The higher estimate for 1917-18 includes a provision for the opening of some new Sub-Registry Offices and a larger expenditure on temporary establishments, book-binding and other urgent items of contract contingencies. We are still in the midst of the war and we had to cut down expenditure to what is practically an almost irreducible minimum. Schemes of reform, some of which have been sanctioned, are waiting until normal conditions are restored. The Secretary of State has recently sanctioned a long deferred scheme for improving the pay and prospects of the ministerial establishments in District Head-quarters and mufassal offices at a cost of Rs. 1,37,000 per annum, but this cannot be given effect to at present. The Secretary of State has also sanctioned the exemption of a number of our registering officers from the operation of the rule in the Civil Service Regulations under which their pension used to be reduced on account of over-age at the time of entry into pensionable service when the Department was reorganized in 1905. This will be given effect to immediately as the cost is not very great. It will afford a very appreciable relief to a number of deserving officers of the Department who had earned their pension after years of hard work. The important scheme of improving the cadres of District Sub-Registrars and Sub-Registrars with a view to ensuring a more rapid flow of promotion is nearing the stage of final sanction.

The Department is still very young, having only begun to exist as an organized Department of Government from the year 1905, and a great many things remain yet to be done before its needs can be reasonably met. Schemes have been prepared for providing a Central Record Room for the storage and preservation of old records and for the building of a large number of new offices and quarters for Sub-Registrars where they are urgently wanted. The equipment of Registration offices generally and the renovation and rebinding of a large quantity of valuable registration records also leave much to be desired, and though we try to make the little money that is available go as long a way as possible. I cannot but deplore that the continuance of the war necessarily curtails many of our much needed improvements.

It will be seen that the excess of receipts over expenditure gives the State a handsome surplus Rs. 10,64,000."

RESOLUTIONS.

(Under the rules for the discussion of matters of general public interest).

LIST OF BUSINESS—ITEM No. 11.

The Hon'ble BABU AMBIKA CHARAN MAZUMDAR moved the following Resolution :—

This Council recommends to the Governor in Council that steps be taken to establish Municipalities at every headquarter station of a sub-division of a district where they do not exist at present, and also at every other town and important centre of trade within a district where there exists a population of 3,000 and upwards :

Provided that the proportion of the non-agricultural population of every such area to its agricultural population is compatible with the provisions of section 10 of the Bengal Municipal Act, 1884 (Bengal Act III of 1884).

Amended Draft Financial Statement.

Babu Ambica Charan Mazumdar.

He said :—

"My Lord, in moving the resolution which stands against my name I do not feel pressed, nor do I consider it at all necessary, to trace the history of municipal corporations in Bengal from their earliest inception. Suffice it for my present purpose to examine very briefly their growth and expansion since 1884 when the first serious step was taken to introduce Local Self-Government in this country and a new life was imparted to the municipal administration in this province. In reply to a question of mine in September last, Government were pleased to furnish a statement showing the development of municipal administration in Bengal from 1885 to 1915. A glance at this statement will disclose the very slow progress we have made in the expansion of the municipal system during the last 30 years. When Ben. Act III of 1884 was introduced there were 92 municipalities within the 26 districts now constituting the Presidency of Bengal, and now after a lapse of 30 years in 1915 the number stands at 112 only ; that is, one complete generation has passed away and we have only 20 municipalities added to the list in the whole of this advanced province which in other respects, notably in point of education, has made remarkable progress during this period. My Lord, they have done much better in Bombay where the number of municipalities has risen to 156 within this time. Then out of these 112 municipalities 75 are in the Presidency and the Burdwan Divisions and the remaining 37 are distributed among the Dacca, Chittagong and Rajshahi Divisions. Among the districts the 24-Parganas commands 26 municipalities, and as you recede further and further from this premier district the number becomes generally thinner and thinner until it fades away in the remote north and east where often a single municipality looms out in an entire district like an oasis in a desert.

Then out of the total increase of 20 municipalities noted above 10 have gone to the 24-Parganas and the remaining 10 distributed throughout the rest of the province.

My Lord, the statement further shows that there are no municipalities at the head-quarter stations of many large and important subdivisions, not to speak of many Munsif's Chowkies and other important centres of trade and commerce, which have rapidly sprung up in many places. In the important district of Dacca which is said to contain the second capital of the province, there is only one subdivision which has got a municipality, the important subdivisions of Munshigunj and Manikganj having none. In Chittagong there is only one municipality at one of its subdivisions. In Noakhali there is only one municipality at the sadar, there being no other municipality in any of its subdivisions. In Faridpur there is no municipality at such an important subdivisional town as Rajbari which is the terminus of an important railway system. There was a municipality at old Goalundo ; but since the head-quarters was removed to Rajbari in 1887 the municipality was abolished and no step has been taken to restore it to the present head-quarters of the subdivision ; while the new subdivisional town of Gopalganj is rapidly growing into an irregular town of ditches and excavations. In the old district of Jessore there are no municipalities at Magura and Narail. In Khulna an important subdivisional town like Bagerhat is without a municipality. Going north the scene becomes still more dismal. In a large and wealthy district like Rangpur there is but one municipality at the sadar and all the three subdivisions of Gaibandha, Nilphamari and Kurigram are left to take care of themselves.

The same condition prevails in Dinajpore and Jalpaiguri, where there are no municipalities except at the head-quarter station of these two districts.

Resolution.

Babu Ambica Charan Mazumdar.

In short, my Lord, out of a total of 52 subdivisions, excluding the sadar subdivisions, there are no fewer than 21 subdivisional towns which possess no municipal arrangements to look to the health, comfort and convenience of their inhabitants.

My Lord, there are quite a number of Munsif's Chowkies which practically resemble subdivisional towns and there are many important bunders or trade centres with no agricultural population which have assumed the proportions of fairly large towns, but are left to grow both in extent and population without any arrangement for their sanitary and other requirements.

My Lord, while matters have been allowed to drift in this fashion, the question has assumed a serious aspect in another direction which cannot safely be overlooked. The villages are being gradually deserted and the towns crowded and congested every year. For the sake of professional and other business and for facilities of education of children, proper medical assistance, water-supply, sanitary comforts and conservancy arrangements, all well-to-do people, who can afford to do so, are yearly migrating from their ancient and hereditary village homes and settling themselves in towns and other important centres of trade and business.

My Lord, the District Board and the bodies subordinate to them from the very nature of their constitution as well as from the extensive sphere of their operations are precluded from meeting the manifold requirements of these towns, and beyond the construction of a few roads they have nowhere been able either to provide for or to control the sanitary and conservancy arrangements of these towns. In fact, my Lord, of the two sister enactments both introduced under one and the same policy of the Government of India formulated in 1882, the so-called Bengal Self-Government Act was intended to meet the conditions of rural tracts, while the Bengal Municipal Act was intended to provide for the requirements of urban towns. Though in some respects the two seem to be analogous they are perfectly distinct and different in their constitution and character and wholly distinguishable in their essence and substance.

My Lord, I cannot say that the growing insanitary condition of these unprotected towns and townships has wholly escaped the attention of Government; for recently a step has been taken to form Union Committees in many of which a subdivisional town has been grouped with a number of adjacent villages to constitute a Union.

My Lord, while I yield to no one in my sincere appreciation of the best intention of the Government, I feel constrained to say, that the step taken has been a mistake. Any attempt to combine two such varying and divergent conditions as those of urban and rural areas is bound to work double injustice and ultimately prove a failure. In the first place the villagers' taxes will go largely to the benefit of the towns people and the villagers will go very much neglected; while if equidistribution were to be enforced the towns will receive no more attention than the ordinary villages, and thus there will not be any appreciable difference in the past and prospective condition of these towns. The financial position of the unions cannot by any means be a strong one. A limited dole of a grant from the District Board supplemented by the chowkidari tax cannot go far enough to meet their demands. The income of an ordinary union from these sources cannot far exceed Rs. 2,000 a year and this must be wholly insufficient to meet the requirements of a town, not to speak of the villages which may be incorporated with it. A self-taxing, self-controlling, and self-supporting machinery is needed to cope with the growing demands of these towns; and this machinery can only be supplied by a municipal corporation.

Resolution.

Babu Ambika Charan Mazumdar.

My Lord, I do not and cannot blame the Government for this slow expansion of the municipal system. I am not aware of any instance where the people applied for the establishment of a municipality, but the Government refused such an application. But if the people, owing to their general poverty are so culpably negligent of the security of their health and comforts, Government cannot view with indifference the growing insanitary condition and unprotected growth and congestion of these towns. The people owe it to themselves to pay for their health and comfort and increased powers and privileges must carry with them increased burdens and responsibilities.

My Lord, notwithstanding all their lapses and shortcomings the existing municipalities must be given their credit for the great improvements they have effected in their towns. All the municipalities are fairly alive to their responsibilities and eagerly seeking to improve their charges to the best of their financial strength. In several towns filtered water is supplied, in many protected tanks and wells are reserved, while in all a regular system of conservancy is maintained. Street-lighting and street-sweeping are carried on, while 3 to 5 per cent. of their revenues are devoted to education. Year after year while pointing out their defects Government have borne ungrudging testimony to the good work done by these self-governing institutions and has generously come forward as far as possible to help them with grants and subsidies from the provincial revenues. I am aware that the last administration report was not very complimentary to them. It was mainly urged that they were remiss in increasing taxation. My Lord, I do not stand here to defend any recalcitrant municipal board, but as one of their representatives in this Council I feel bound to say a word or two on their behalf before they are summarily condemned. Their actual position is often misunderstood and their difficulties are more often than not altogether overlooked in an off-hand and stereotyped official criticism. My Lord, there is the fact that in 1884 the total income of the municipalities in the 26 districts now forming the Presidency of Bengal amounted barely to little over 3 lakhs, while in 1915-16 their income has risen to over 55 lakhs, with the income of the 20 minor municipalities super-added. Then in a town containing a population of 20,000 with a revenue of Rs. 30,000 nothing is easier than to point out that the incidence of taxation is only Re. 1-8 per head of the population. But it is overlooked that out of the 20,000 population only 2,000 bear the bulk of the burden of this entire taxation. Then, my Lord, is not the law itself responsible to some extent for this low and disproportionate figure of taxable persons and shortness of taxation?

In most of the district municipalities the main tax in force is a tax on persons according to the means and circumstances of persons occupying holdings. But the narrow definition and the narrower interpretation given to holdings and to occupiers of holdings make it easy for a very appreciable number of people, both official and non-official, in almost every municipality to evade this taxation. Many people living in a zemindar's kutchery and in the premises of jute mills and other factories making decent incomes of their own cannot be taxed. Inspecting officers who take their meals at hotels and live in boats within a municipality escape taxation. Truth is said to be sometimes stranger than fiction; but I know of a case in which a judicial officer—I will not say whether he was a Munsiff or a Deputy Magistrate—drawing Rs. 400 a month managed to secure a rejected wagon on a railway siding in a municipal town and there this wise man, like Diogenes in the tub, lived to defy the municipal authorities. I need not multiply these instances, for they are not pertinent to my present case. Whether there are municipalities which have or have not developed their resources to the fullest extent is no reason why new municipalities should not be established in other places where they are urgently needed.

Resolution.

Rai Mahendra Chandra Mitra Bahadur.

My Lord, it is not for me to suggest what means and methods Government should adopt to give effect to this resolution. The Bengal Municipal Act does not lay down any hard-and-fast rule as to who should take the initiative in the matter of the establishment of a municipality. But the Government cannot divest themselves of their responsibility in providing for the health and comforts of the people committed to their care even if the people are slow to realize and appreciate them. As in the case of Union Committees, the Magistrates may be asked to report what towns in their district ought to have municipalities, stating their extent and population, the divisions into wards, the number of commissioners for each ward and for the whole of the proposed municipality and the schedule to which such municipality should belong. My Lord, it will be a great step taken for not only the expansion and development of Local Self-Government in this province, but also a practical measure for the partial solution of the vital question of sanitation. It will also strengthen the municipal electorates for the Council elections.

With these remarks I submit, My Lord, the Resolution for its acceptance by the Council and by the Government."

The Hon'ble RAI MAHENDRA CHANDRA MITRA BAHADUR said :—

"My Lord, I beg to support the resolution of the Hon'ble Mover. In 1915, the Local Self-Government Policy of Government of India was enunciated in its Resolution Nos. 55-77, dated the 28th April. 'Local Self-Government as a conscious process of administrative devolution and political education dates, outside presidency towns, from the financial reforms of Lord Mayo's Government. Consultative committees had indeed been appointed in various towns in 1850, and measures were taken in 1864 and following years to give effect to the recommendations of the report of the Royal Army Sanitary Commission, which was published in 1863, but no comprehensive scheme was introduced until the years following 1870.' The management of local affairs by the people was encouraged by Lord Ripon. A capacity for self-help by the people of this country has developed since then. The elective system of selecting representatives has been introduced. Official control over the municipalities has been greatly reduced. The Royal Commission upon Decentralization surveyed the whole field of Indian administration. The Government resolution in referring to the above subject noticed the substantial progress of the Local Self-Government Policy and it observed that 'there is definite and satisfactory evidence of the growth of a feeling of good citizenship particularly in the towns. The spread of education is largely responsible for the quickening of a sense of responsibility and improvements of the machinery. In certain provinces, beneficial results have followed the elaboration of a system of Local audit. On all sides there are signs of vitality and growth.'

"The time has now arrived for the expansion of Local Self-Government. Past experience suggests that the people of Bengal are capable of taxing their countrymen properly, collecting the taxes and spending them for the improvement of their towns. Our benign Government have trained the people to administer their own affairs, for they also by their instincts inherited from their forefathers are competent to discharge the duties devolving upon them by these new measures. If therefore municipal administration in many Municipalities has proved efficient and successful the people of this country claim an extension of the operation of the principles of Local Self-Government to other places where they have not been tried; specially in those localities which are prosperous because of the spread of commerce and industry. Any one who has studied the history of the growth of municipal administration has noticed the anomaly in creating municipalities in some towns and at the same time depriving others of the benefit of municipal administration. Let us take a few concrete cases :—In the district of Birbhum, Nalhati and Rampur Hât are omitted from the operation of the Municipal Act. The population per square mile is 649 and 606, respectively, in the towns of Nalhati and Rampur Hât, whereas in the head-quarter at Suri which has a municipality, the population is 449 per square mile. Let us come to Howrah. Amta and Uluberia have no municipalities, though their popolution is 1,293 and 1,402, respectively, per square mile. In Rangpur, we may take the case of Nilphamari and Gaibandha ; in these places the population is 789 and 1,188, respectively, per square mile. Then again in the district of Dacca, in Manikganj and Munshiganj, the population is 1,015 and 1,600 per square mile, respectively. These few illustrations will explain the necessity of the creation of municipalities in places like those I have mentioned. There is a net work of commercial towns in every part of Bengal and I fully support the views of the Hon'ble Mover, that those places are only to be omitted, which come under the purview of the proviso to the resolution.

"I do not understand why most of these localities have not been allowed to enjoy the benefit of municipal administration since 1864. I suppose it may be admitted that wherever the population of a place admits of its being considered a town and the number of agriculturists who cannot be taxed does not predominate, proper conservancy and sanitary arrangements should be made, in other words municipalities should be created in such areas. Experience has shown that in districts like the 24-Parganas and Hooghly there is a large number of municipalities and the Commissioners have been able to a great extent to check the spread of malaria, cholera and small-pox within the municipal limits. My Lord, I am glad to bring to your notice that by the introduction of the supply of filtered water in the towns of Hooghly-Chinsurah, Sahaganj and British Chandernagore, the ravages of cholera and small-pox have been mitigated and even malarial fever to a great extent has disappeared since the last two years. This is owing to the kind help which Your Excellency's Government extended to the local Municipality. But while other people are discussing the ways and means of driving away malaria from the affected areas, and adumbrating ambitious and costly scheme of flooding and drainage, I am confident that municipal improvements as introduced in Hooghly will be a panacea for all those diseases which are troubling Bengal. I therefore feel it a pleasant duty to commend this resolution to the Council for reasons which I have submitted. And my connection with mufassal municipalities for more than 30 years gives me, I think, a right to speak on the subject with that authority which practical experience generates. My hope for the extension of the principles of municipal administration to various towns and localities in Bengal is strengthened by an idea that village unions ought to cease to exist when they are expanded to a collection of people who feel fit to administer their affairs by municipal laws."

The Hon'ble BABU SURENDRA NATH RAY said :—

"My Lord, I have great pleasure in supporting this resolution. It is a very modest Resolution and I think your Excellency's Government can have no reason to oppose it. The provisions of the Bengal Municipal Act are clear. The Act, I mean the Bengal Municipal Act, may be extended to any local area, provided that no local area can be included within a municipality unless the Local Government is satisfied that three-fourths of the adult male population are chiefly employed in pursuits other than agriculture, and that such area contains not less than 3,000 people and on an average number of not less than 1,000 inhabitants per square mile. The head-quarters of subdivisions are invariably the most important places in a district bristling with life and animation whatever of life and animation there is in the country. It is therefore but meet and proper that Government should wherever possible give the boon of municipal life to these places. There are no doubt some subdivisions where there are municipalities, but on the other hand there are subdivisions where there are no municipalities but they are under the Local Board. I am probably the only member in your Lordship's Council who is connected with a Municipality and who is also a Member of a Local Board. From my experience of a Municipality and of a Local Board, I can say without hesitation that these Local Boards are almost lifeless—these Boards are by their very constitution dependent upon the District Boards not only for their sustenance but also for their very existence. Not only are they allowed a certain sum to keep them going but even the items of their expenditure under the major heads are settled by the District Board. It is in the subdivisions that we have men who are quite willing and are quite competent to carry on a Municipality if the right is given to them. The object of that great statesman the late Lord Ripon in introducing Local Self-Government in India was that it might be an instrument of popular and political education. That object of that noble Viceroy has not been realised by the establishment of Local Boards but has been to a great extent realised by the establishment of municipalities. The question of sanitation which is the most important question in the mufassal towns and villages is grappled with more satisfactorily in a municipality than in a Local Board. In this country we are placed in such a helpless position that Government have to take the initiation in all matters and Government will have to take the initiation in this matter as well. Government will not lose anything by doing so. On the other hand it will earn the gratitude of the educated community of the Presidency. There is no apprehension that these new municipalities will not be a success, for we have now 30 to 40 graduates in such subdivisions and we can fairly expect that under their guidance and management these institutions will be found to be a success. They will be better managed than the Union Committees which Government are now desirous of establishing."

The Hon'ble BABU KISHORI MOHAN CHAUDHURI said :—

"My Lord, I have great pleasure in associating myself with this resolution. Being elected to this Council from the Municipalities of the Rajshahi Division, I think that this much-needed reform should be introduced as early as possible. I cannot really understand, if places like Sherpur in Bogra district and Nawabgunge in Malda district can have municipal administration why places like Gaibandha and Kurigram, in Rangpur district and Thakurgaon and Balurghat in Dinajpur should not have municipal administration. I was discussing this very question a few days ago with the Magistrate of my district, Mr. Cassells. There is a proposal that a Municipality should be established in Nowgaon in Rajshahi which is a rising town. He was telling me that a Union Committee would do very well there, but one aspect of the question is lost sight of. The district fund is largely monopolised for the maintenance of the trunk roads and feeder roads of the district. The additional new grant of the Public Works Cess is largely monopolised by education charges and for the maintenance of dispensaries and for medical aid. If over and above this large sums of money have to be spent for maintaining the larger towns in the districts in proper order under union committees the funds will be further crippled and proper attention will not be given to the rural areas. So I think that union committees are not the proper remedy and, wherever possible, municipalities ought to be established. I hope with the Hon'ble Mover that for this reform Your Excellency's Government will find its way to take proper steps for establishing municipalities wherever possible with the safeguards as suggested by the Hon'ble Mover. With these few words I beg to support the resolution."

The Hon'ble MAULVI ABUL KASEM said :—

"My Lord, it is with some diffidence that I rise to speak on this resolution. If I have to base my opinion on the experience that I have gained of the municipal administration of my town, I would hesitate before supporting it. I think municipal administration is not an unmixed blessing. However, I am glad to learn that municipal administration in other towns is in a much better condition than it is in Burdwan, and I think that we can safely ask Your Excellency's Government to establish municipalities at head-quarters of subdivisions of the districts where there are no municipalites. But I would appeal to Your Excellency's Government to take into consideration the conditions and the interests of the Muhammadans wherever they are in the minority in these municipalities. I deeply regret to say that my experience of municipal administration in towns where Muhammadans are in a minority, has been very sad and very regretable. Muhammadan interests, I say it with a full sense of responsibility, have been deliberately neglected where they are in an absolute minority, and I hope that in introducing these municipalities, Your Excellency's Government will take care that some provision is made for the proper and adequate representation of Muhammadans, and for the safeguarding of their interests. With these words I support the resolution."

The Hon'ble RAI RADHA CHARAN PAL BAHADUR said :—

"My Lord, I rise with some diffidence on this occasion. First of all, I must admit that I was but a little amused by the speech delivered by the previous speaker, my friend the Hon'ble Maulvi Abul Kasem. I thought when listening to his speech that he was opposed to this motion, but I find that the only ground of his opposition is that the Muhammadan interest would be neglected and therefore there should be no extension of the municipal system in other parts of Bengal. I do not know what my freind's experience is, but as far as the majority of non-official members are concerned, and I believe it will be admitted by some of the Muhammadan members here that in most of the places where the municipalities exist, the Muhammadan interest is as well looked after by the Hindus as the Hindu interest is looked after by the Muhammadans. Now, my Lord, with regard to the resolution moved by my venerable friend the Hon'ble Babu Ambika Charan Mazumdar, I must admit, that there are two sides to the question, and, candidly speaking, I cannot make up my mind which side to vote for. I am not one of those who are accustomed to decline to vote when asked to say yes or no. But on this occasion I seem to be driven to that position. My Lord, we have in season and out of season reiterated that education has so much advanced in Bengal —this Presidency being the most advanced province in India—and the educated community is so much scattered through every part of Bengal that there is a demand for a larger share in Local Self-Government. I have not much experience of the province outside the city, but I must say I am surprised to hear from the representatives of the District Boards of other parts of Bengal that there is not yet sufficient public spirit and sufficient education spread in other parts of Bengal as to induce the residents of these parts, especially as the Hon'ble Babu Surendra Nath Ray said that the subdivisions contained able and competent and enlightened men—to avail themselves of the provisions of the Bengal Municipal Act and to ask for municipalities in their subdivisions. My Lord, we very rightly demand that Government should be guided by public opinion, and I am rather surprised that in this matter, a matter in which the educated community is vitally interested, that the desire for what we call the extension of Local Self-Government is so silent and so dormant in those enlightened subdivisions of Bengal. I value the blessings of municipal government, but at the same time, my Lord, I think that public opinion in those places should be consulted before the Government extend municipalities in these areas. I am a product of two generations of municipal self-government in Calcutta, and whatever public life we possess is due to civic life in Calcutta, but I must say that I quite agree with the Hon'ble Maulvi Abul Kasem that unless municipal government is placed in able, willing and capable hands, it is not an unmixed blessing. Therefore, although I sympathise with the object of the resolution, I think that public opinion in these localities where the municipalities are required, should be consulted before the Government take such a step."

The Hon'ble RAI DEBENDER CHUNDER GHOSE BAHADUR said :—

"My Lord, I have much pleasure in supporting the resolution of my Hon'ble friend Babu Ambica Charan Mazumdar, which has been supported by the previous speakers except the Hon'ble Rai Radha Charan Pal Bahadur. I recollect what took place in the Bengal Legislative Council in the middle seventies of the last century. I am old enough to remember that. It was the time of Sir George Campbell, who was Lieutenant-Governor of the province, and he was far ahead in many matters in his time. The Municipal Act at that time was the one which was passed in 1863 and he wanted to give the Municipality a most comprehensive scope, and he wanted to introduce municipalities not only in every district of the province then under his control, but also to every subdivision of a district and other places of importance in the district. That Bill was very carefully drafted and it was introduced in Council by Mr. Beaufort, then the senior member of the Civil Service and it ran its course in Council in spite of very great opposition on the part of the representatives of the Indian community then in Council and who acted under the lead of the late Maharaja Sir Jatendra Mohan Tagore and Raja Digambar Mittra. But in spite of this opposition the Bill was carried, and passed into an Act. But when it came up to the Viceroy, the late Lord Northbrook, he could not see his way to give his assent to it. He was a Viceroy with great liberal principles and it was at his initiative that the elective system of municipal representation in Calcutta, of 1876 at the time of Sir Richard Temple, the succeeding Lieutenant-Governor, was introduced. Lord Northbrook, as it was reported at the time, said it was a very good thing to have municipalities all over the country, but the people for whom it is intended through their representatives in Council, have entered a protest that they do not want it. 'Why should we', said he, 'create discontent by forcing this on them'. This was the state of things, Sir, some 40 years ago. What do you see now? The accredited representatives of the people, members of the Council who represent the municipalities of the province barring the Calcutta Corporation, have come forward and asked for the extension of municipalities all over the country. Take it to the subdivisions and to important centres of trade, places of importance in the districts. Some people may not like it, for instance, the Government officer who wants to live in a railway wagon, but they will like it in time, and there is a very considerable proportion of the people, rural people I should say who feel the want of sanitation and the want of civic conveniences and would be glad to have municipalities. Then there is another class, the class which is somewhat more articulate, represented by my friend the Hon'ble Babu Ambica Charan Mazumdar, the President of the last Indian National Congress; they want Local Self-Government and extension of Local Self-Government, and certainly they are entitled to speak on behalf of the people, and if they are a little in advance of the agricultural population in their sentiments, I think their views have to be respected and have to be considered and followed because the agricultural man of to-day will be the trader of to-morrow and the manufacturer of the day after and spokesman of his countrymen the next day. I think it would be a very wise thing for the Government to accept the views of the gentlemen who are members of Your Excellency's Council to-day and make a move in the direction of the extension of municipalities."

The Hon'ble MR. P. C. MITTER said :—

"My Lord, I have great pleasure in supporting this resolution and in doing so I wish to address this House only from one point of view. This Council has heard from the Hon'ble Babu Surendra Nath Roy what the statutory provisions of the municipal system of administration are, but I may add shortly the essential statutory requisites, namely, there must be a minimum population of 3,000 and three-fourths of the adult male population who must be employed in pursuits other than agricultural, and lastly there must be a density of population of 1,000 to the square mile. The main question which I would ask this House to consider is, in an area such as this, an area which the Legislature intends to characterise as urban, should we have municipal administration as our ultimate aim or should we have a system of administration by village unions? I am unhesitatingly in favour of a system of municipal administration in an area like this as our ultimate aim for several reasons. My first reason is that it will afford better facilities to the local population to tax themselves. It is already an unpleasant duty to tax oneself, but before we can really do anything in the direction of sanitary improvement, we must learn to tax ourselves and to bear the burden of taxation. Then, my Lord, there is another reason why I am in favour of municipal administration for urban areas, namely, it will tend, at any rate it ought to tend, to the growth of the public interest in local affairs in such areas. There is still a third reason which induces me to vote in favour of my Hon'ble friend's motion, namely, that municipal administration for these urban areas will tend to set free funds for sanitary improvement of rural areas, for we know that funds are badly wanted in rural areas. At the same time I must say I am in entire sympathy with the observations of my Hon'ble friend Rai Radha Charan Pal Bahadur, that we must have local interest in these matters before we can ask for municipal administration in these areas. It will not do for the Government to force the municipal system of administration upon an unwilling population and therefore in my humble judgment the right course for the Government to follow would be when the question arises with reference to a local area to see if the area is an urban area as defined above, or a rural area. If it is an urban area Government sympathies ought to be for the introduction of a municipal system of administration provided the local public wanted it. If the Government be pleased to follow this humble suggestion of mine, I have no doubt that in the fullness of time the local inhabitants of such areas will realise the importance of taxing themselves. They will realise that it is much better to live and live well even though it may be costly. On the other hand in the system of administration by village unions the areas must necessarily be much larger than municipal areas. The more intelligent and influential people residing in subdivisional towns will often attempt to appropriate to themselves more funds for the immediate benefit of the immediate locality in which they are interested. Therefore looking at the interest of the province as a whole I have no hesitation in supporting this resolution."

The Hon'ble MR. M. ASHRAF ALI KHAN CHAUDHURI said :—

"My Lord, in subdivisional towns or in other big towns, although they may be of great importance and centres of great activity and there might be people who are very influential, still they have no voice in the municipal administration of the district. In returning members to this Council their opinions are not represented, though in all fairness it should. Secondly, the municipal bodies of the sadar towns are entrusted with the work of the administration of the sadar towns themselves ; they have not the power to formulate methods of improvement in other towns. The improvement of the other towns and big villages on the other hand, having no municipal bodies responsible for the town improvement and management thereof, do not make any corporate effort to undertake the work themselves. It is desirable that the men of such towns should have direct responsibility in effecting improvements in their own towns. It is only in this way, my Lord, that sanitary and other desirable improvements will be seriously tackled by the people themselves. There is a tendency, I am glad to say, with regard to District Board administration and it is undoubtedly a step in the right direction to establish village unions in order to allow and encourage people to take greater interest in the improvement of the local administration. Therefore, I hope, my Lord, that it will be thought consistent with the spirit of the movement to establish municipalities in all towns, at least in all subdivisional towns, and in all fairness and for the good of these towns, Government should establish municipalities in those places where at present there are no municipalities."

The Hon'ble MR. A. RASUL said :—

"My Lord, I had no intention of speaking to-day on this resolution and I do not intend to speak on the general aspect of the question. There is no doubt, and I think every member will agree with me, that my Hon'ble friend the mover of the resolution has made out a very strong case for the adoption of his resolution. My Hon'ble friend Rai Radha Charan Pal Bahadur said something in reply to what my Hon'ble friend Maulvi Abul Kasem said with regard to Muhammadan representation in the municipalities. It is for this reason that I have risen to speak. My Hon'ble friend Rai Radha Charan Pal Bahadur has said that every member of this Council well knows that there is no distinction between Hindus and Muhammadans in these municipalities. I have never served on any municipality in my life and I must say that complaints have come to me as a journalist with regard to various matters. I should not go so far as to say that the Hindu members of the municipalities have deliberately neglected the interests of the Muhammadans, but I must say that they have been, I dare say, unwittingly, indifferent to the interests of some of the Muhammadans in some municipalities. Well, we need not discuss the various municipalities, but as far as the Calcutta Municipality is concerned, I am told that the bodies of Hindu paupers are burnt at the expense of the municipality, but, unfortunately, the bodies of the Muhammadan paupers are also burnt, there being no provision for their suitable burial. But, fortunately, the Muhammadan inhabitants of Calcutta have come forward and have established certain associations which raise funds from the Muhammadans of Calcutta, and with the aid of these funds they are able to give suitable burial to such bodies. Well, in this case, I should not say that the Hindu Commissioners deliberately did that, but that was because, I think, there were not many Muhammadan Commissioners in the Corporation, and it is well known, especially to those Hindu Commissioners and also European Commissioners, if there may be any present here, that in the present Corporation there is not a single Muhammadan elected Commissioner in Calcutta, therefore I have great sympathy with what my friend the Hon'ble Maulvi Abul Kasem said, that when municipalities are established, the interests of the Muhammadans should be safeguarded. As far as the resolution is concerned I do not think any Muhammadan or any person belonging to any other community can take any exception to it, because we ought to have municipalities, but the interests of the minority should be safeguarded."

Resolution.

Babu Akhil Chandra Dutta : Mr. Godfrey.

The Hon'ble BABU AKHIL CHANDRA DUTTA said :—

"My Lord, I have great pleasure in supporting this resolution. I will add only one word about the observations made by my Hon'ble friend Maulvi Abul Kasem. I hope the members of this Council will believe me when I say that this is the very first time that I have heard of such a thing that the interests of the Muhammadans are deliberately neglected, presumably by the Hindu municipal commissioners. I have never heard that the Muhammadan interests are neglected at all, much less have I heard that they are deliberately neglected. I do not know that the full significance of the charge that has been laid at the door of the Hindu commissioners has been seriously considered by my friend the Hon'ble Maulvi Abul Kasem. I have heard, I must admit, some such suggestion that in the matter of election sometimes it has been complained that the Hindus gave preference to Hindus and Muhammadans gave reference to Muhammadans, but that is quite a different thing from saying that the Muhammadan interests in all matters are neglected by the Hindu commissioners. At all events, I can assure the Council that if these are the feelings of the Muhammadans in others part of the country, that at any rate is not at all the feeling of that part of the country which I come from, I mean Eastern Bengal. With regard to the resolution, I can only say that in bringing forward this resolution before the Council, the Hon'ble Mover has only represented the feelings of the public at large in this matter. If the wishes of the people are at all to be considered, I think there are very good grounds for accepting this resolution."

The Hon'ble MR. GODFREY said :—

"My Lord, I do not wish to detain the Council long, but as my work takes me to all parts of India, an expression of my opinion on this subject may be of some use. I have listened with much interest to the speech of the Hon'ble Mover, but I cannot think that he has made out any strong case : in fact, the very instance he has cited of responsible individuals, presumably educated men, evading taxation, only shows, in my opinion, how unfitted many of the small towns would be for the responsibilities of municipal administration. If such educated officials, as he mentions, would act in such a way, what could be expected from the comparatively uneducated classes. I am afraid, my Lord, that the Hon'ble Mover may think that I am opposed to his resolution, in view of the light he has thrown on the question of the shortage of Railway wagons in India at the present time, it is indeed a revelation of the lengths to which a self-respecting member of a Government service will go in collusion with a Railway servant, to evade a small local tax, but that is not the reason, my Lord, for opposing the resolution.

"I am strongly in favour of the gradual extension of Local Self-Government in municipal matters, but from my experience of many parts of India, I have seen too many cases of mismanagement by Municipalities because of the impossibility in small towns of finding sufficient ability to organize and pursue the proper duties of a Municipality.

"I am afraid I cannot believe that every subdivisional head-quarters, village or town is qualified to adopt municipal organization or could do so without a very large number of them proving very incapable and failing, and failure in this way would only result in throwing back the proper but gradual advance of Municipal Local Self-Government for several years, a result I should not wish to see.

Resolution.

Nawab Sir Syed Shams-ul-Huda.

The Hon'ble Mover has himself admitted that some existing municipalities do fall short of expectations and show poor results. His resolution would only increase the number of failures, and I think he would be well advised not to press the Resolution."

The Hon'ble NAWAB SIR SYED SHAMS-UL-HUDA said :—

"My Lord, I am sorry that I cannot accept the resolution though it has received considerable support, some of which has not been unqualified. I do not desire to base any arguments on any of the controversial questions that have been raised by some of the Hon'ble Members. My Hon'ble friend desires the establishment of a municipality at every headquarter station of a subdivision and every other town and important centre of trade which may satisfy the provisions of section 10 of the Municipal Act. That section, as Council is aware, insists that the Municipal Act shall be extended only to places where three-fourths of the adult male population are chiefly employed in non-agricultural pursuits ; that the number of inhabitants should not be less than 3,000 and that there should be on an average not less than 1,000 inhabitants to the square mile. A reference to the last census report will show that the number of places in Bengal which have an urban character and which satisfy the requirements of section 10 and yet do not possess a municipality is small. At the last census only 124 places were treated as towns. We have already 112 municipalities in Bengal. The number of additional places to which the Municipal Act could be extended are therefore very few. The definition of a town for census purposes is a municipality, cantonment and any other place which is of an urban character, though not under Municipal Government. The District officers were specially asked to report what places came in the last category, e.g., as centres of trade with a fairly dense population, etc., but only six places other than municipalities or cantonments were considered sufficiently urban to be treated as towns. Of these, two were Railway settlements, the remaining four were all in Rangpur. Two of the latter have only a little over 3,000 inhabitants, the other two (of which one Nilphamari is a subdivisional headquarters) had a population of under 3,000 and could not therefore be created municipalities under the law.

As regards the request that all subdivisional headquarters should be made municipalities, there are 83 subdivisions in Bengal (including the Sadar subdivisions), and of these only 25 subdivisional headquarters are not municipalities. No less than 17, however, of them have been constituted Union Committees.

I would not here enter into a discussion as regards the relative merits of municipalities and Union Committees. Suffice it to say that we have recently been establishing a large number of these committees and are about to undertake legislation to increase their powers and their responsibilities. It would be useful to have a certain number of these committees in semi-urban areas where the presence of a comparatively large number of educated people would make those committees models for the rest. Personally, I would be sorry to do anything at the present moment which will, in any way, prejudice the scheme of local self-government from which we expect a great deal of good to the country. Besides, it is well known that the people themselves are not keen on having Municipal Government as it brings in its train additional taxation and the Hon'ble mover of the resolution is the last person who would ask Government to do anything against the wishes of the people. I think I can say quite correctly that there are very few, if any, real towns which are not already municipalities. There are many subdivisional headquarters which are largely agricultural in character where crops are grown, cattle are grazed and shops are few. If my Hon'ble friend would make an inquiry he will perhaps not be able to instance many subdivisional headquarters without a municipality to which the Municipal Act could legally be extended. If he would indicate any such places and the people themselves are willing to have a municipality and not a Union Committee we would consider such a case with sympathy."

Resolution.

Babu Ambica Charan Mazumdar.

The Hon'ble BABU AMBICA CHARAN MAZUMDAR said :—

"My Lord, I have not been a little surprised to hear some of the remarks made by some of the members of this Council. Several issues have been raised, some of which are mere side issues, and some of which do not touch the question at all. I will briefly refer to these objections.

My Hon'ble friends, Maulvi Abul Kasem and the Hon'ble Mr. Rasul, although they both supported the resolution, have said that Muhammadan interest should be safeguarded. I should be the last person to stand in the way of safeguarding the interests of Muhammadans. They speak from their experience of certain municipalities which might not have acted properly. The Hon'ble Maulvi Abul Kasem speaks of Burdwan. I do not know whether Burdwan is quite so malaria-stricken even in regard to its public spirit, but I can assure both my Hon'ble friends that there are municipalities, a very large number of them—and I have been connected with the administration of a municipality for nearly twenty years—in which no such apprehension exists.

Then, My Lord, the Hon'ble Rai Radha Charan Pal Bahadur has sprung upon me a very formidable argument, viz., that it is extremely doubtful if there is public spirit enough in the interior of the country. For his information I may tell him, if he will profit by my information, that in the mufassal municipalities the Commissioners do not demand a fee of Rs. 16 nor do they get Rs. 20 for attending the meetings of either the municipal corporation or the Improvement Trust, but they all work gratis. Their public spirit is not to be kept up by any silver tonic. What is in Calcutta is not what prevails in the mufassal, and if there is any public spirit although we have no town hall in the mufassal, and if what is called true public spirit is to be found anywhere, it is in the interior of the country where the people work gratis without any hope of reward.

The Hon'ble Mr. Godfrey has said that he is able to attack me on my own ground, viz., I have said that a certain judicial officer lived like Diogenes in a tub and therefore evaded taxation. He probably lost sight of what I said. I said that there was a defect in the law and I do not suppose any member of this Council is so generous that if he can evade the law, he will come forward to Government or to anybody to pay a tax. What I said simply is this—it is not simply the Municipal Commissioners who are responsible, but that there are certain defects in the law which allow people to go scot-free. That is my view of the question.

Then he has said that he has been in many of the provinces and he found that there is a lack of public spirit. My Lord, I am a Bengali and I am a little bit proud that I am a Bengali. Bengal is different from the other provinces, it may not be in other matters, but in matters of public spirit and in matters of political education, Bengal is far ahead of the other provinces, and there are instances where people have sacrificed much for municipal government and district administration, and everywhere they have given proof of much public spirit.

My Lord, the Hon'ble Mr. Godfrey says 'let us have gradual advance.' But where is the advance if everything is stationary? You cannot ask the sun to advance in its path. We are practically at a standstill. Thirty years have elapsed and we have not made any advance. Then where is the gradual advance?

Resolution.

Babu Ambica Charan Mazumdar.

The Hon'ble Member in charge is even imbued with the idea that the time has not come for any expansion of municipal administration. When it will come God Almighty alone knows. The Hon'ble Member has sprung upon me the last census report. He reminds me of a story which I read in my younger days of a young gentleman who when he went in the company of certain ladies wanted to create a sensation and said, pulling out a piece of paper from his pocket, 'Look here, Jerusalem is attacked.' The ladies exclaimed, 'Jerusalem is attacked! when and by whom?' Then a person took the paper and saw that it was as old as the 13th century. My friend has practically done the same thing. He has sprung upon me the census report as if the country and the subdivisional towns have remained where they were at the time of the last census. What is my proposition? I have given you a proviso that you need not establish a municipality unless there is a population of 3,000. But why do you throw me aside with the census report of 1911? Inquire and if some of these towns do not satisfy this condition, do not give them a municipality. I have not asked you to go beyond the law. I have given you a proviso, provided the condition is compatible with the provisions of section 10 of the Municipal Act of 1884, that is the section which provides that there must be at least a population of 3,000 and also that at least three-fourths of the population should not be agriculturists, and that the incidence of population is compatible with the law. That is what I have said. Where is the reason for the Government to reject this proposition, when they are so very very anxious for the expansion of local self-government? Besides what evidence is there as to the limit of these towns of which my Hon'ble friend speaks which the census superintendent took for the purpose of their operation? My Lord, let us be frank and let us know exactly where we stand. It is said that Government are very much interested in local self-government. Let us have some positive evidence of it. My Hon'ble friend is a Unionist,—he likes Union Committees and all the other ramifications of the officialised District Boards which are a mockery of local self-government. There is a District Board and under it a Local Board and there will be the village unions. There you can find competent men, there you can find public spirit, there every condition is satisfied, but these unfortunate towns cannot satisfy any of these conditions! It ought to be patent to every sensible man that unless you have a self-taxing, a self-supporting machinery, the proper administration of the towns and the proper maintenance of their sanitation and conservancy cannot be maintained. The so-called Local Self-Government Act does not provide for any measures of this sort. No town, no village union has ever or can ever maintain an establishment for securing conservancy or any other matters of sanitation connected with it. You will ask District Boards to give Rs. 1,500—and as my friend the Hon'ble Member in charge is bent upon increasing the number, the dole of grant will be gradually smaller and smaller because the District Board's income is not very elastic. We have created a number of unions each with a magnificent income of Rs. 1,200 which can neither improve the village nor the towns, and if you insist on multiplying these, I can only understand that whatever is said about the interest for local self-government is a misnomer and a myth if not a delusion and a snare.

We are at this time crying for self-government within the Empire. Many people have told us in high places 'Begin with improving local self-government.' If local self-government is first developed and improved, then ask for National self-government. I thought there was some sincerity and some reason in the suggestion, but at the same time when a proposition like this cannot be accepted, then goodbye to all hopes and aspirations for the future development of self-government, local or national.

My Lord, I will ask for a division whatever may be the fate of the proposition."

Resolution.

Babu Kishori Mohan Chaudhuri.

LIST OF BUSINESS—ITEM No. 12.

The Hon'ble BABU KISHORI MOHAN CHAUDHURI moved the following Resolution :—

This Council recommends to the Governor in Council that steps be taken for affording further facilities for general education all over Bengal by the establishment of some more first and second grade colleges and higher class schools in different parts of Bengal with such local contributions and aid from District Boards and Municipalities as may be practicable, also that circular orders be issued authorizing the Heads of Government institutions to duplicate classes wherever necessary, the additional expenses being met from the additional income to be derived from such duplication.

He said :—

"My Lord,

In commending this resolution to the acceptance of this House, I wish to make myself clear, at the very outset, that it is not my intention to oppose even indirectly the establishment in Bengal of one other University

Resolution.

Babu Kishori Mohan Chaudhuri.

if not more either at Dacca or elsewhere, in regard to which, I am afraid, I have been misunderstood in several quarters. In my first notice of the resolution I suggested the postponement for the present of the establishment of the proposed Dacca University and to utilise the money provided for the same in giving effect to the proposals embodied in that resolution. I have now thought it proper to omit the above suggestion as I think it is purely a financial question and it is not for me to enter into it.

I am fully alive to the manifold blessings which we have derived in the past and hope to derive in the future from the establishment of Universities in India, but I think the time is come when we should aim at the development of special branches of technical education in the old Universities as well as in some new ones to be started, as I understand is being done in the United Kingdom. I welcome with all my heart any attempt that may be made for the diffusion of knowledge in whatever shape it may be. That there is necessity for making further arrangement to meet the growing demand of educational facilities admits of no doubt. It is equally necessary, I think, that the existing machineries should be improved and remodelled for giving a healthy tone to and for the full development of the educational activities all over Bengal. Reformation and not revolution should be our principal aim. If the proposed Dacca University is likely to remedy the defects of the present system and to help the diffusion of knowledge which we so urgently require, we should try to have it as early as possible. If, however, there be reasonable apprehension that progress and more rapid spread of education are likely to be retarded under the new system, we should pause for a moment to consider the situation before we can support the movement. I do not mean to say that I do not want any more Universities in Bengal for general education, but I want to place before Your Excellency what we really want at the present moment in order to meet the growing demand and the natural aspirations of our youthful generation. In education lies the solution of the all important bread question of the day and in education lies the relief of the so-called middle classes, or the Bhadralog classes, in Bengal. In whatever way that can be achieved, we all should have our heartiest support. It is in this view that I have modified my original resolution and without disputing with any of my Hon'ble colleagues the method of our procedure, I simply press for the things we are in urgent need of.

The great charter of the present system of education dates its origin from the memorable despatch of the Court of Directors of 1854. They for the first time, I believe, 'definitely accepted the systematic promotion of general education as one of the duties of the State in the British Administration of India.' They regarded it as a sacred duty to confer upon the natives of India those vast moral and material blessings which flow from the general diffusion of useful knowledge.' They hoped by means of education to extend the influence which the Government was exerting at the time for the suppression of demoralising practices by enlisting in its favour the general sympathy of the native mind. They also sought to create a supply of public servants to whose probity offices of trust might with increased confidence be committed, and to promote the material interest of the country by stimulating its inhabitants to develop its vast resources. This policy was reaffirmed in 1859 when the administration was transferred to the Crown. The principle was further developed by the commission of 1882-1883, which submitted further detailed proposals for carrying out the principles of the memorable despatch of 1854.' It was clearly affirmed in the Government resolution, issued on the 11th March, 1904, during the régime of Lord Curzon that the efforts of the Government in pursuance of the above policy produced, upon the whole, a powerful influence for good. The shortcomings of the educational policy regarding its general spread and opening new avenues of employment were noticed in this resolution and a modified scheme was put forward for spreading the benefits of education more widely in its primary, secondary and higher stages. This modified scheme finally culminated in the passing of the Universities Act of 1904 and the framing of regulations for each University with reference to local circumstances for controlling the University education in India.

Resolution.

Babu Kishori Mohan Chaudhuri.

This declaration of policy did not, however, rest with the above despatches and resolutions. This educational policy has since been finally accepted in clear and unmistakable terms of the Royal Declaration graciously made by His Majesty, our beloved King Emperor, in January, 1912. It was a message of hope fully sympathising with the aspirations of His Majesty's Indian subjects communicated through the members of the Senate of the Calcutta University and its registered Graduates. His Majesty's command and assurance now find a prominent place, as they must, in the last quinquennial report for 1907—1912 of the Hon'ble Mr. Sharp. I may be permitted to quote the passage here :—'Education has given you hope and through better and higher education you will build up higher and better hopes. The announcement was made at Delhi by my command that my Governor-General in Council will allot large sums for the expansion and improvement of education in India. It is my wish that there may be spread over the land a net-work of schools and colleges from which will go forth loyal and manly and useful citizens, able to hold their own in industries and agriculture and all the vocations of life, and it is my wish too that the homes of my Indian subjects may be brightened by the spread of knowledge with all that follows in its train,—a higher level of thought, of comfort and of health. It is through education that my wish will be fulfilled and the cause of education in India will be very close to my heart.' India, My Lord, wants no more. What we have been clamouring for is only this—that effect must be given to this noble and soul-inspiring Royal Command.

As regards Primary Education, it is not my intention to say anything at the present moment. 'The Primary Education,' as defined by the Indian Education Commission of 1882, 'is the instruction of the masses through the vernacular in such subjects as will best fit them for their position in life.' There is great demand for primary education even in the remotest villages in the interior. Every cultivator of some means is now anxious to get an elementary education and feels its necessity all the more for taking an intelligent part in dealing with his creditors and landlord's Tahsildars. In the resolution of 1904, above referred to, Government fully accepted the proposition that the active extension of primary education is one of the most important duties of the State. And it was so not merely on general grounds, but, as Lord Lawrence observed in 1868, 'among all the sources of difficulties in our Administration and of possible danger to the stability of our Government there are few so serious as the ignorance of the people.' The Conference of the Co-operative Societies recently held in Calcutta and opened by Your Excellency adopted a resolution urging for the wider diffusion of primary education in Bengal. I, however, hope and trust the question will be seriously taken in hand when the revision of the Bengal Local Self-Government Act and the contemplated legislation upon the recommendations of the District Administration Committee will come up for consideration.

The wider extension of education is chiefly a matter of increased expenditure and we cannot entirely depend upon Government help. People must come forward to bear a reasonable share of the burden and the people of Bengal are not unwilling to do it.

I need not dwell upon in detail the various stages and the result of the educational reforms To-day we are beset with difficulties on all sides. The necessary funds are not forthcoming, the existing system and the machineries are being condemned and there is a general cry in the official circle that there has been enough of high education in Bengal. It was admitted in the India Government Resolution of 1904 that in India four villages out of five are without a school and three boys out of four grow up without education and a new start was given with the avowed object of effecting greater activities and thereby ensuring steady progress of education.* The last report on the Public Instruction in Bengal for 1915-16 shows, however, that for a male population of over 23 millions, of whom over 10½ millions are Hindus and over 12 millions are Muhammadans, there were 32 Arts Colleges with 17,226 students on the 31st March 1916, of whom 15,429 were Hindus and 1,535 only were Muhammadans. What a poor figure for our Muhammadan brethren in the matter of collegiate education! The general condition of secondary education is reported to be bad. On the 31st March, 1916, 197,530 students in all were in High schools. The number is not at all encouraging and Government must be prepared for a very large increase in the near future at least in the Muhammadan number. The Hon'ble Mr. Hornell, in his last report, says, 'The general condition of secondary education is bad.' This statement, though bald, is not novel, and the dictum that the improvement of Secondary schools is mainly a matter of funds has become a commonplace. The fact is that the Secondary educational system is being run at a figure at which the genuine article, or anything approaching it, cannot be delivered Government schools which are supposed to be models are scarcely up to, in some cases they are definitely below, the standard of the better aided schools.

Resolution.

Babu Kishori Mohan Chaudhuri.

It cannot, however, be denied that much progress has been made specially among the Muhammadans in recent years. If the machineries can be kept in order and properly set in motion they are sure to work out the desired result in process of evolution.

Noticing very favourably the progress made by the Calcutta University, Lord Hardinge, in his convocation address, as Chancellor of the Calcutta University, in March, 1915, observed: 'The number of Arts College students in the area under the Calcutta University between 1910 and 1914 nearly doubled, increasing from 9,000 to 18,000, the annual number of Matriculates increased from nearly 3,000 to nearly 7,000, that of the graduates trebled, Masters degree-holders quadrupled. Similarly increase has been effected almost in every branch of education.'

May I be permitted to ask, My Lord, have we got sufficient number of institutions to accommodate and train the increasing number and have we got sufficient number of teachers and professors to manage them? If not, it is no wonder that the Calcutta University is deteriorating in substance or quality as it is improving in number or quantity.

The growth and progress of education is the unavoidable work of evolution. The more education is spreading, the more are people appreciating its value and advantages. Improved facilities for communication are also an important factor for the rapid rise in the number of the recipients of education. These changed circumstances must be met and dealt with with corresponding changes in the machineries for works otherwise the result is bound to be disastrous. If the result is not satisfactory, the defects should be detected upon proper inquiry and remedial measures should be adopted. I may be permitted to make myself clear with an illustration.

The B. A. classes in the Rajshahi College were opened in 1878 with a donation of a lakh and a half made by the late Raja Pramatha Nath Ray

Bahadur, father of Raja Pramada Nath Ray of Dighapatiya, through the Rajshahi Association. It was arranged then that if at least eight students remain on the roll in each of the 3rd and 4th-year college classes, Government would maintain the college. The annual number on the roll in these two classes is now over 250. Maintenance of B. A. classes with a minimum number of 16 students now-a-days is certainly beyond imagination. Maximum number of students in the four college classes in the Rajshahi College has now been fixed at 750. The University was pressing for retention of six professors in English, but as there were five only in the College, Government were asked to appoint another in addition. The Director of Public Instruction, however, asked the Principal of the College to reduce the number of admission by 100 to meet the University demand. If this order is carried out, Government shall have to suffer a loss of Rs. 400 a month in fee receipts for avoiding a monthly expenditure of Rs. 200 or so for the pay of an additional lecturer in English. Rajshahi College is the least expensive 1st grade Government College in Bengal. I quote below the figures for the other Colleges as given in the last Education Report :—

Name of the College.	Number on the roll on 31st March, 1916.	Government expenditure per head last year. Rs. A. P.
1. Presidency College	975	237 5 7
2. Dacca College	820	171 9 6
3. Rajshahi College	774	52 12 6
4. Hooghly College	242	134 1 3
5. Krishnagar College	184	175 1 5
6. Chittagong College	264	140 13 6

May I ask, My Lord, is this the sovereign remedy for maintaining efficiency, or encouraging steady progress?

Last year nearly 250 to 300 students had to be refused admission in the Rajshahi College. Many of them appealed to us and we suggested the opening of two more sections for the 1st and 2nd-year students for the accommodation of at least 200. Their fee-income would have been at least Rs. 800 a month, which would have been sufficient for the additional expenses necessary for the duplication. But the Principal of the Rajshahi College declined to accept the suggestion for reasons best known to him. There are economic causes, I think, for this growing demand for education. The living is becoming gradually dearer and the educated communities with the rapid rise in the number are not getting sufficient employment. Thanks to the Permanent Settlement the cultivating classes and with their assistance the labouring classes have improved much in Bengal. The result is that the Bhadralog classes are in real difficulty. They must of necessity educate their sons in order to preserve themselves. Those who remained contented in their exclusion in the interior village life are being obliged to come to town to educate their children and for availing themselves of proper medical aid. The old state of things has thoroughly changed. India in the pre-English period had its own systems of education of great antiquity both among Hindus and Muhammadans. These systems were closely bound up with their respective religious institutions, cheap as well as suited to their circumstances. Western science and systems of education have completely displaced those native systems of antiquity. It is, because of this, that ample provision for the proper education on the new western method has become absolutely necessary for these Bhadralog classes.

As I have already said, education is the bread question of the day. Closing the door of high education is not, and will never be, the proper remedy for meeting the situation. It will simply bring in discontent and unrest if new avenues of employment be not thrown open and suitable education be not provided for them.

Resolution.

Babu Kishori Mohan Chaudhuri.

The Bhadralog classes are the real backbones of society. There is a great struggle for their very existence. Education is, properly speaking, confined to this community. There is a great antiquity behind them. It is a mistake to think that they have nothing to do with the masses and they may be regarded as negligible quantities. They practically guide the masses and represent them, as the masses in India are without any education, so to speak. Society cannot ignore them and the great masses cannot do without them. The real difficulty is with these classes. Ways and means must be devised to educate them properly. The difficulty which was felt in 1854 has made its reappearance in a different shape only. It is also to my mind, My Lord, the outcome of the education policy so carefully devised and so long pursued with steady onward progress. In this connection the last administration report for Bengal is a very interesting study. It must have attracted special attention of my Hon'ble colleagues. I quote below a few passages from Chapter IV on the Secondary Education :—

'The number of these (secondary) schools is rapidly increasing and the cry is for more and more. It is a demand for tickets in a lottery the prizes of which are posts in Government service and employment in certain professions. The Bhadralog have nothing to look to but these posts while those who desire to rise from a lower social or economic stratum have their eyes on the same goal. The middle classes in Bengal are generally poor, and the increased stress of competition and the tendency for the average earnings of certain careers to decrease—a tendency which is bound to follow on the increased demand to enter them, coupled with the rise in the cost of living and the inevitable raising of the standard of comfort—all these factors conspire to make the struggle to exist in those classes all the keener. The situation calls for a systematic and comprehensive policy formulated with an eye to economic conditions and in full recognition of the fact that education costs something.'

The diagnosis, My Lord, is not quite correct. A mistaken ratio policy without competitive test in distributing Government services among Hindus and Muhammadans has produced a demoralizing effect. Competition for nomination is now-a-days going on between the Government officers and official favourites and the Muhammadans. The general public is gradually being excluded from this hard competition for nomination. In working out the ratio the questions of education, birth, position in society are lost sight of. Government, we are sorry, proceed upon the grand totals in the census columns. I may cite one example. I remember when the School Sub-Inspectors were appointed by the District Boards, a Government Circular letter was issued insisting on the appointments being made in every district with reference to the proportion of population between Hindus and Muhammadans. In Rajshahi the proportion was fixed at one to four, the Muhammadans being over 80 per cent. in the district. The fact, however, is that most of these Muhammadans are cultivators and labourers having no education at all. The last census report figures for Rajshahi are :—

	Population.			Literate.			Literate in English.
	Persons.	Males.	Females.	Persons.	Males.	Females.	Persons.	Males.	Females.
Hindus	3[illegible]640	164,998	150,642	31,795	28,697	3,098	4,756	4,692	64
Muhammadans ...	1,148,314	58[illegible],669	566,645	36,676	36,143	533	1,261	1,256	5

During my Vice-Chairmanship for several years I could not secure, as far as I remember, a single Muhammadan of the district for the post of School Sub-Inspector drawing a pay of Rs. 50 a month for even an undergraduate with 3 years' teachership qualifications. The limited number of educated Muhammadans has no doubt been benefited by this provision, but I do not grudge it, as this provision has given a start for a very rapid progress of education among my Muhammadan brothren and we all are deeply interested in the cause of Muhammadan education. We know full well that Government posts are very limited in number. The Government cannot provide all. We are clamorous for Government service and overcrowd the legal and other professions simply because we have got nothing else to do. It is not a demand for the "prizes," as my friend puts it, but it is the very struggle for existence. The prize posts in Government service, specially in the Educational service, are practically monopolized by persons with good, bad and indifferent education.

Resolution.

Babu Kishori Mohan Chaudhuri.

Education is now no longer only a means to an end. With many it is now becoming an end in itself. Our countrymen are clamouring for high education simply because it makes them men and qualifies them for all spheres of life. It is the real preceptor of men. It makes them self-respecting and self-reliant and it fosters in them the spirit of true citizenship. Education includes learning and character. Protection and education of the people are the first charge upon the State, and protection, indeed, My Lord, does to a great extent depend upon education. The State, therefore, has always taken upon itself the imperative duty of educating the people under its charge. And it is upon the contentment, law-abiding common sense, loyal devotion and dutiful adherence of the people that the stability of the State depends.

Without general education nothing can be accomplished. So the system for general education must be thorough and complete.

There is much room for improvement and expansion of the educational institutions without throwing heavy burden upon the provincial revenues. Almost all the private institutions financed to a certain extent by private libefalities are self-supporting if not paying. In every important centre it is desirable that there should be model institutions under Government supervision and control. There would be no difficulty if local resources and help are sympathetically utilized. Quality will also improve if accommodation and supervision are sufficiently provided for. The new college at Rangpur will, I am sure, be a great relief to the people of North Bengal. As a resident of that part of the province I wish to avail myself of this opportunity of acknowledging with sincere thanks the great services in this respect of Mr. J. N. Gupta, the popular Magistrate of the district. Without his tact, judgment, energetic devotion and above all his genuine strong sympathy for the educational advancement of the people of the Rajshahi Division it would have been impossible for Rangpur to secure this inestimable boon. Similar endeavours can successfully be made in many other places. Another 1st grade college at Dacca in addition to the new college at Mymensingh has become a necessity for the East Bengal. The Secretariat Buildings may with advantage be utilized for the purpose. The 2nd grade colleges at Pabna, Comilla, and Midnapore should be raised to the status of the 1st grade college. The district authorities may be directed to try to develop the flourishing high schools into 2nd grade colleges wherever possible and wherever there is a demand for the same. Such efforts can, I think, successfully be made in Dinajpur, Faridpur, Noakhali, Birbhum and such other districts in this province. Many Middle English Schools can be developed into High Schools and all the Middle Vernacular Schools may be turned into Middle English Schools with the help of the District Boards and Municipalities supplemented by local contributions.

Duplication of classes may safely be arranged in many places without substantial Government help. The arrangement may be made temporarily at the discretion of the local authorities. The idea is not a novel one. If I remember aright, this very suggestion was made by my esteemed friend the Hon'ble Dr. Sarbadhicari in his Convocation address as Vice-Chancellor of the Calcutta University in 1915.

Resolution.

Mr. P. C. Mitter.

I am glad that a Commission is going to be appointed very soon for a thorough inquiry into the Calcutta University. To my mind, it is a message of hope and we will anxiously wait for the result of their deliberations. We earnestly hope and pray that the primary stage will form an important part of the inquiry and a scheme will be evolved, and remedial measures will be adopted which will ensure the steady progress of education and will spread such knowledge in fulfilment of His Majesty's Declaration as will sweeten our labour and brighten our homes.

One word more, My Lord, and I have done. I sincerely thank Your Excellency from the bottom of my heart for allowing me an opportunity of discussing in my humble way the most important and all-absorbing question of educational development in Bengal. I am sorry it is raised at the close of your administration when the gloom of separation is upon us. May the Almighty grant you health, comfort and strength to take an abiding interest in the welfare of this country."

The Hon'ble MR. P. C. MITTER said :—

"My Lord, I confess that when I read my Hon'ble friend's resolution I thought there was nothing in it which I would support ; but after careful consideration, I have come to the conclusion that so far as the principle of the extension of high education is concerned I can give the resolution a limited support, and in coming to that conclusion I must say that I have been considerably influenced by the illuminating facts and figures which my Hon'ble friend, Mr. Hornell, placed in the last administration report on education. I find, My Lord, that altogether 17,226 boys are receiving collegiate education. Out of these 17,226 boys, 1,535 are Muhammadans. I find also that the total Muhammadan population of college-going age, taking roughly the ages of 15 to 20 to be the college-going age, is 1,027,000, and of these I find only 1,535 boys in the whole province of Bengal are receiving any kind of collegiate education. That shows that only 014 per cent. of college-going Muhammadan boys are receiving any collegiate education.

Turning to the collegiate education of the community as a whole I find that out of a total population of college-going age of 2,028,000, 17,226 boys are receiving collegiate education. That shows that only 1·2 per cent. of boys of college-going age are receiving collegiate education. These figures show that we should have more high education. When I say this I am not at all unmindful of the fact that the great majority of our graduates and under-graduates find great difficulty in getting honourable employment, and that is a point of view which is of the utmost importance for a proper consideration of this question. But, My Lord, is the reason of such unemployment this that there is too much collegiate education or are we not to seek the reason elsewhere? For the last three quarters of a century, the Government was mainly responsible for the direction of education and the only education to which attention was directed was education of a more or less literary character. Avenues of employment which are open in all civilized countries for educated young men are barred to our young men. Employment in industrial pursuits, in commercial enterprises, in agriculture, in banking—it is needless to multiply instances—is non-existent in our country. I have heard it said and said often that the reason lies very much in the disinclination of our young men to take to such pursuits. I shall not say that there is no truth in that charge, but I say at the same time and say that with all the emphasis I can command that the reason is equally due to the want of adequate provision for proper education in these directions. My Lord, with the vast and illimitable resources of India in her natural products, with her vast forests yet unexploited, with her vast mineral resources yet undeveloped, I put it to those who are responsible for the direction of education in this country, have any properly thought-out schemes of education seriously been attempted to be introduced in this country by which our young men after receiving a liberal education in our ordinary colleges in Arts or Sciences can afterwards turn to special educational institutions, so that after coming out from these institutions they will be well qualified in developing the vast resources of their country. I say, without any fear of contradiction, that there is no such institution not only in this province, but in any province in India. Therefore, looking at the figures we find that the percentage of educated young men is very small. We are also confronted with the stern fact that even a small percentage of educated young men have no means of honourable livelihood. Therefore the conclusion follows irresistibly that the education policy has not been directed in a way in which it should have been; but, My Lord, it is never too late to turn back. If we have to develop our natural resources, we have to educate our young men and we must have more high education and to that extent, therefore, I give my support to that part of the resolution.

Resolution.

Mr. Hornell.

My Lord, there is one aspect of the question which I cannot ignore, and that is the financial aspect. I feel that in the present financial condition of the country it is difficult to ask for more money even in such an important matter as general education. But my Hon'ble friend, the mover of this resolution, asks for money for general education from Municipalities and District Boards. That is a proposition to which I cannot accede. Our Municipalities and District Boards for years to come must place all their resources in solving questions which are far more pertinent to them than education, important though it is. Therefore, I support my friend's resolution so far as the principle of the extension of high education is concerned, but I am sorry that I cannot support his resolution in all its details."

The Hon'ble MR. HORNELL said :—

"My Lord, the Hon'ble mover of the resolution has given us a touching testimony of the faith which is in him. I am quite sure that no member of this Council would wish in any way to upset that faith, more especially as he has so convincingly shown us that in this matter he is entirely one with the King-Emperor, but I also gather that in advocating this general extension of the educational system he seems to think that somehow or other the Educational Department of this Government are up against him, and he has told us that statements have been made in high official circles that there is enough of higher education already and that it is time that we called a halt. I only want to say with reference to this allegation that I am quite sure that such a statement has never been made.

I do not think that the present is an occasion for going into the question, what should or should not be the educational policy of this Government, much less do I consider it to be an occasion for examining my own shortcomings or the shortcomings of the Education Department. The Hon'ble Member will have an opportunity for doing this when we discuss the Budget as a whole. We have a definite resolution before us, and I take it that it is my business to deal with the resolution as it stands, to try and see to what exactly it would commit Government and to advise the Council in view of that and that alone whether they should accept the resolution or not. The last speaker raised very many important issues. I should very much like to have an opportunity of discussing them all with him. We certainly cannot do it here or now. He is convinced that there should be more educated men in India. I should only like to say in reference to this general statement that I am quite certain that I and every other member of this Government entirely endorse and re-echo the sentiment.

Resolution.

Mr. Hornell.

Turning to the resolution as it stands, it advocates the taking of steps for affording further facilities for general education all over Bengal by the establishment of some more first and second-grade colleges in different parts of Bengal. Presumably, by a high class school is meant what is known as a High English School, i.e., a school recognized by the University of Calcutta as an institution fit to prepare candidates for the Matriculation Examination of that body. The resolution says nothing whatever with reference to technical or industrial training. It simply says that steps should be taken for affording further facilities for general education all over Bengal by the establishment of some more first and second grade colleges and High English Schools. It does not specify who are to take these steps. I listened carefully to what the Hon'ble Member said, because I imagined that he would explain in the course of his speech what the procedure the adoption of which he is advocating would be. All I can gather is that there will be local committees on which men of wealth and position, like our Hon'ble friend the mover, will vie with one another in emptying their own and other people's pockets. I can only say that every member of this Government and every member of this House would welcome enthusiastically any such development as this, but the Hon'ble mover goes beyond local committees collecting subscriptions, and here I wish to take up a point which has been raised by the last speaker. District Boards and Municipalities are to contribute to the establishment and maintenance of these additional first and second grade colleges and these additional High English Schools. But apart from the considerations raised by the last speaker, a District Board cannot legally spend money on a college. The right of a Municipality to do so is, I am told, of very doubtful legality, and I say this with the full knowledge of what the Midnapore Municipality is doing and have been doing for years in connection with the college which was transferred to them by the Local Government. Moreover, it is the view both of the Government of India and the Government of Bengal that the first educational charge on the funds of District Boards and Municipalities must be on account of primary education. Of course, the Hon'ble Member is not only a Municipal Commissioner himself, but he represents Municipalities in this Council, so it is idle for me to quote to him from the literature on the subject. But I would like to invite his attention to the Despatch of the Government of India, No. 873, dated 19th September 1916. In this Despatch, the Government of India intimated their wishes in respect of the recommendations bearing on education which were made by the recent Royal Commission on Decentralization in India. The gist of the educational recommendations of the Royal Commission was that the educational activities of local bodies should be mainly restricted to primary schools, and if the Hon'ble Member will turn to paragraph 10 of that Despatch he will read the following :—

'In the previous paragraphs of this Resolution it has been assumed that the educational activities of local bodies should, as recommended by the Commission, be confined to primary schools. As regards Secondary Institutions teaching English, the opinion of the Commission was that these should be financed by Government ; and in view of the fact that so long as the expenditure on these schools rests with local bodies, these bodies are subjected to much pressure to divert to the support of these schools the funds intended for primary education, the Government of India have no hesitation in accepting the principle of the Commission's recommendations as correct. They are unable, however, in present circumstances, to meet the additional expenditure which its general adoption would involve. The financial support of secondary schools which are now maintained at the cost of local bodies must therefore, in the absence of local arrangements to the contrary, be continued for the present on existing lines, but precaution should be taken to restrict by rule any tendency to increase the expenditure of local bodies on secondary schools at the expense of the interests of primary education, and when financial conditions permit all such expenditure should be made a charge upon provincial revenues.'

Before I leave this point, I should like also to invite the attention of the Council, for the matter is, I consider, one of vital importance, to paragraph 31

Resolution.

Mr. Hornell.

of the Bengal Government's resolution on the working of Municipalities in Bengal, 1916. The number of the Resolution is 2896 M., and it was published on the 18th of December 1916 :—

'Educational expenditure, says the Resolution, rose by Rs. 13,203 and it is observed that the whole of the increase was devoted to secondary rather than primary education. The major portion of the increase is due to expenditure on colleges and high schools in Burdwan, Midnapore and Maniktollah. The expenditure on primary schools decreased from Rs. 1,08,328 to Rs. 88,567 and the Governor in Council desires to invite attention to the principle that primary education must be the first object of municipal educational expenditure and that the municipal fund should not be utilised for secondary education intended for the benefit of well-to-do classes, until full provision has been made for primary schools.'

The same point was driven home in the Government of Bengal's latest Resolution on the working of the District Boards of Bengal. The resolution to which I refer is No. 2913 L. S.-G., dated the 19th December 1916, and it has reference to the working of the District Boards during the year 1915-16. I quote from paragraph 17 :—

'The Governor in Council considers it necessary to re-affirm the established principle that until full provision has been made for primary education in a district no part of the district fund should be diverted to the support of education of a higher kind, since this is beyond the needs of the majority of the tax-payers and may well be paid for by those who desire it and can afford it.'

As regards the second half of the resolution, the Hon'ble mover asks that circular orders be issued authorising the head masters of Government institutions to duplicate classes whenever necessary. There are a certain number of Government colleges and secondary schools and these are intended to be models. If you want to add to an institution, it is generally considered desirable that the authorities of that institution, by which I mean those who are responsible for its finances, should be at least consulted. The Hon'ble Member, however, proposes to deprive Government even of this privilege. If the head master thinks that a zilla school wants doubling, he is just to double it by the simple process of duplicating all the classes. The head master will presumably just go ahead and it will be for Government to find the money later. I can attach no other meaning to the Hon'ble Member's suggestion that circular orders should be issued authorising head masters of Government Institutions to duplicate classes wherever necessary, but I find it difficult to believe that this is what the Hon'ble Member really intends. However, I desire to join issue with him on the idea which presumably underlies his suggestion. A school is a unit, a whole. It is not a matter of indifference whether it has 12 classes or 42. There cannot be more than one head master in a school. One man cannot look after more than a certain number of boys, and personally I do not think that any school, the existing educational and social conditions of Bengal being what they are, should exceed 500 to 600 boys. When an institution runs to 1,000 or 1,200 pupils it cannot have any corporate life. It is merely a collection of classes. The classes in Bengal high schools are already far too large. Ask any teacher you like and he will tell you that it is impossible for one man to teach a class of 50. We may not be able to alter these conditions all at once. If the demand for high school education exceeds the supply, the proper way to deal with the situation is to establish more schools and not to render those which exist already more inefficient than they are. Any strong case for increasing any particular Government college or school will be considered, but Government cannot possibly pledge themselves to the issue of such orders as the Hon'ble Member has suggested. Government would welcome any reasonable proposal for the extension of sound education, but it is impossible for them to accept the resolution which is before the Council."

Resolution.

Babu Kishori Mohan Chaudhuri.

The Hon'ble BABU KISHORI MOHAN CHAUDHURI said :—

"I see that I have not been properly understood by some of my Hon'ble friends. My friend the Hon'ble Mr. Provash Chunder Mitter says he cannot support the financial aspect of the question. Both he and my friend the Hon'ble Mr. Hornell think that the District Boards and the Municipalities would not contribute anything. But I think I am not wrong in saying that the middle class English school and the middle vernacular schools can come under the category of secondary education and within the control of the administration of District Boards. I have said in my speech that all the middle vernacular schools should be turned into middle English schools because middle vernacular schools are of no use. English education should be introduced and if that is to be done—that can be done by District Boards. The District Funds can contribute towards it. The District Boards have got the public works cess now and a major portion of it is spent for medical aid, etc., and I do not understand why some portion of it should not be devoted to the maintenance of the middle English schools, at least those which are under the control of the District Boards. So far as the middle English and the middle vernacular schools are concerned, I think they can receive aid from the District Boards. As for Municipalities they have also got higher class English schools. So I think there should be no difficulty. As for college and secondary education I have distinctly said that that the money for their maintenance can be supplemented by local help as in the case of Rangpur, where local contributions have been made to supplement the fund. Similar attempts can be made elsewhere, but the initiative must be taken by the State, and as far as I have been able to show the existing facilities now afforded by the State are not enough. The existing institutions are not sufficient.

I have been taken to task for not saying anything for technical education in this resolution. I have got some other resolutions on the subject and so I carefully avoided saying anything regarding technical education here. My idea is that without general education nothing can be done whatever. Arrangements may be made for giving technical education, agricultural education and so forth, but the ground-work must be general education and for general education something ought to be done.

The Principal of the Dacca College says in his last year's report that there is not enough accommodation in the Dacca College, and I suggest that a first grade college there is an urgent necessity. Second grade colleges can also be established in several districts. The other day the people of Rangpur raised about 7 lakhs of rupees for establishing a higher grade college there. As to duplication of classes I do not mean to say that a whole school with three or four hundred boys should be duplicated. For the lower classes the excess number can be accommodated in middle English and middle vernacular schools. Only the higher classes need be duplicated, and as far as I remember this very suggestion was made by my Hon'ble friend Dr. Sarbadhikari in his Convocation address of 1915. He also suggested that duplication should be resorted to wherever possible. As I have shown in my speech, at Rajshahi the question arose of duplicating the first and second year classes. There are now about 800 boys, and we suggested that accommodation might be made for 200 boys or more. I do not mean to say that heads of colleges should be given full powers. All I suggested was that discretion should be given to the local authorities and local heads of the institutions. They should exercise their discretion in a reasonable spirit and should take sanction of their superiors. This can be satisfactorily arranged. And if we have more second grade colleges and more higher English schools, many more boys can be accommodated. There will be no difficulty. And my contention is that it is a very urgent need and should be taken up at once.

Resolution.

Babu Kishori Mohan Chaudhuri; Mr. Irwin.

I hope Your Excellency's Government will see its way to accept the principle of this resolution. As I said the initiative must come from the State and local help can then be expected. I hope the House will accept my resolution."

The resolution was then put and lost.

The following resolutions, which stood in the name of the Hon'ble Babu Kishori Mohan Chaudhuri, were, by leave of the President, withdrawn :—

This Council recommends to the Governor in Council that encouragement may be given to students in the matter of economical living by the provision of additional hostel accommodation at charges compatible with their means and family circumstances and that arrangements be made also for careful and sympathetic supervision over students whether living in hostels and messes or under the care of their guardians.

This Council recommends to the Governor in Council that arrangements be made as far as practicable for imparting moral and religious training on national lines in schools and colleges in Bengal.

This Council recommends to the Governor in Council that early steps be taken to provide facilities for imparting such education as is necessary for the development of local industries and for the utilization of local resources.

This Council recommends to the Governor in Council that early arrangements be made for imparting higher technical education to the students in Bengal by the establishment of institutions, workshops, laboratories and by arranging for the apprenticeship of students in suitable places in commerce, technology, forestry, agriculture and kindred subjects.

This Council recommends to the Governor in Council—

(i) that a Medical College be established at Dacca;
(ii) that the duplication of classes be arranged for in the existing Medical institutions in the Province, and
(iii) that Medical Schools be established in different parts of the Province on the vernacular basis.

LIST OF BUSINESS—ITEM No. 18.

The Hon'ble MR. H. R. A. IRWIN moved the following resolution :—

This Council recommends to the Governor in Council that if, or directly, finances permit, funds shall be allocated for the construction of the cart-road between Takdah Cantonments and Reang, in the Darjeeling district, with diversion to Lopchoo Bazar, as already surveyed and estimated for by the Public Works Department, with a view to connecting Darjeeling with Kalimpong and linking up with the Teesta Valley Railway Line, by a road suitable for wheeled traffic.

He said :—

"Your Excellency will, I think, remember receiving a deputation from the Darjeeling and Terai Planters some eighteen months ago on the subject of the roads and communications throughout Darjeeling and the Terai.

Resolution.

Mr. Irwin.

Whilst the district has been steadily increasing in importance with a corresponding increase in traffic, very little new work has been undertaken for some years, and communications in parts are even worse than they were ten years ago.

I allude now especially to the old military road from Kurseong to Adulpur and on to Siliguri viâ Pankabari, the main road through the Eastern Terai district, which is almost impassable in the rains owing to the want of a bridge over the Rukti River.

The scheme put forward by the deputation above referred to, was of a comprehensive and perhaps somewhat ambitious character, but it received Your Excellency's sympathetic support, inasmuch as you instructed the Superintending Engineer of the district to go thoroughly into it and prepare surveys and estimates on the lines proposed, and you promised to give the matter your favourable consideration when opportunity and means permitted.

Surveys and estimates were duly prepared, but, unfortunately, owing to the increasing drain on funds for Imperial purposes owing to the exigency of war demands, it was found impossible to proceed further with it at the time, and there the matter still rests.

Previous to this a memorial was submitted to Your Excellency by four of the leading Tea Concerns of the district and many native residents urging their claim for a small section of this same scheme being undertaken, and I have now been asked by your memorialists and also by the residents of Kalimpong to strongly support their appeal.

It is very far from our wish to embarrass Government with claims for unprofitable or unnecessary expenditure and we have qualified our request by the words 'if or directly finances permit,' at the same time we may be permitted to point out the urgency of the case, so that it may be taken up at the earliest possible moment.

The need of the proposed road and the district it would serve are so well known to Your Excellency personally that it is hardly necessary for me to recall them to you, but for members of the Council, the majority of whom are unacquainted with the locality, I would give a brief outline of the facts.

At present an excellent cart-road, connecting with the main road and railway line from Darjeeling to Siliguri, branches off from Ghoom and runs as far as the Takdah Cantonments, but from there to Reang, where it joins the Teesta Valley Road and railway line, a bridle road only, impracticable for wheeled traffic, at present exists.

Up to a few years ago this bridle road with much difficulty sufficed, but of late traffic has increased to such an extent that it is quite inadequate to cope with it.

The causes of this increase are briefly—

(1) The increase of tea crops due to intensive cultivation and excessive manuring with consequent extra fuel consumption entailed, thus increasing both upward and downward traffic.

(2) The steadily growing population and importance of Kalimpong and consequent increase of trade.

(3) The opening of the Teesta Valley Railway Line which naturally tends to increase both upward and downward traffic as communications are facilitated.

Resolution.

Mr. Beatson Bell.

The benefits which may be confidently expected to accrue from the construction of this road are manifold.

(1) It would provide an alternative route from the Plains to Darjeeling viâ the Teesta Valley.

The need for this is apt to be forgotten through lapse of time: it was before Your Excellency's advent but I am sure you will have heard and the marks still exist of what was known as the Darjeeling Disaster.

It occurred in September 1899, when, after thirty hours' continuous and heavy rain, the railway line and cart-road between Darjeeling and Kurseong were practically wiped out and communications were entirely cut off for some time.

The heavy rain and consequent destruction was practically confined to the Balasun Valley or Western Road, and had the Teesta Valley route been open it would, as I have suggested, have provided an alternative means of communication.

(2) It would open up communications between Darjeeling and Kalimpong and so facilitate trade with Sikkim and Tibet.

(3) It would greatly facilitate the carriage of tea, foodstuffs, fuel and stores of all descriptions, the present expensive method of carriage on the backs of human beings and animals being obviated.

(4) It would greatly facilitate the transport of troops to and from the Takdah Cantonments and the frontier in case of necessity.

(5) It would considerably add to the revenue from forest produce of all descriptions by opening up forests at present useless owing to lack of or prohibitive cost of carriage.

I will not take up valuable time by enlarging, as I might, on the advantages to be derived from the construction of this road, but will commend the scheme to the consideration of Your Excellency's Council with the hope that, in the words of the resolution, funds will be allocated for the same directly finances permit, and that it will be an instalment only of the larger scheme recommended to Your Excellency by the deputation of Planters above referred to."

The Hon'ble MR. BEATSON BELL said:—

"My Lord, we have listened with much interest to the speech which the Hon'ble Mr. Irwin has just delivered. We assure him that Government fully realise that the road which he is advocating would be a very useful road. At the same time, there are many roads in many other districts in the province which might be equally or perhaps even more useful. This road, the road from Takdah Cantonment to Reang, has been surveyed and a rough estimate has been made. We have ascertained that the road would cost at least 6½ lakhs of rupees, and if we add the cost of the further diversion that has now been suggested, the diversion to Lopchoo Bazar, we can safely say that the whole project would cost at least 7 lakhs of rupees. If we had many spare sums of 7 lakhs of rupees each to allot for district roads, we might very possibly accept this resolution exactly as it stands. But I am afraid, as things actually stand, this would give rise to misapprehension and might lead the Hon'ble Member and his constituents to think that we are prepared to allot 7 lakhs of rupees for this road in the immediate or measureable future. I, therefore, suggest to the Hon'ble Member that he should modify his resolution on the following lines :—

'This Council recommends to the Governor in Council that, when normal financial conditions are restored, he should examine the needs of the Darjeeling district in the matter of roads along with the needs of other districts in Bengal, and shall see whether funds can be allotted for the construction, etc.'

If the resolution be so modified Government will be glad to accept it."

The Hon'ble MR. IRWIN said :—

"I must of course accept the Government amendment to my resolution, but I regret that it could not see its way to give a promise of a more specific nature. The district of Darjeeling including Kalimpong and the Terai has been steadily increasing in importance for some years and in the meantime very little new work in the way of roads and bridges has been undertaken, and such as has been done is quite inadequate to cope with the increasing traffic. The road I have specially asked for is one that is very badly needed and is one that would be the means of bringing in sufficient Government revenue at once."

The Resolution was then put in the following modified form and agreed to :—

"This Council recommends to the Governor in Council that when normal financial conditions are restored he should examine the needs of the Darjeeling district in the matter of roads, along with the needs of other districts in Bengal, and should see whether funds can be allocated for the construction of the cart-road between Takdah Cantonment and Reang, in the Darjeeling district, with diversion to Lopchoo Bazar, as already surveyed and estimated for by the Public Works Department, with a view to connecting Darjeeling with Kalimpong and linking up with the Teesta Valley Railway Line, by a road suitable for wheeled traffic."

Adjournment.

The Council was adjourned to Tuesday, the 13th March, 1917, at 11 A.M. at Government House, Calcutta.
